1. 'A KEMPIS, THOMAS. De Imitatione Christi. Amstelodami: Ex Officina Elzerviriana, ca. 1680. 16mo. Finely bound in early polished calf with concentric gilt ruled lines on both covers, spine with five raised bands and nicely gilt floral motif in five panels. 261pp. Superb engraved full-page title with angels and cherubs. A.E.G. Very nice copy of an early Imitation of Christ title. (#1983) $1,500

3. [ABC] Abécédaire Religieux, Moral, Instructif et Amusant... Par un Ancien Professeur. Paris: Librairie Economique, 1807. Second edition. Period paper boards. Seven full-page hand-colored copper-engraved illustrations each of which has two or more separate images each. Printed only one year after the first edition, each of which are exceedingly scarce. OCLC/WorldCat lists only two copies of this second edition. Spine repaired. A very nice, bright copy. In attractive custom cloth folding case with label on spine. (#2498) $450

5. [ALKEN, HENRY] Illustrations to Popular Songs. London: Thomas M’Lean , 1826. [4] leaves + 41 hand-colored plates (including frontispiece), the margins with a pink wash. Leaf of address is present. (oblong folio) 23.5x33 cm (9½x13”), three-quarter morocco and marbled boards, all edges gilt, gilt decorated spine. Bound by Root & Son. This is a reissue of the original 1822 edition. It has 41 rather than 43 plates, it seems that given the popularity of the work the later issues were often done without a few plates. Henry T. Alken is one of the most renowned and popular of British sporting, humor and genre artists. This copy with modern bookplate of Norman and Janey Buchan. Rubbing of spine and edges, some wear to marbled boards; bookplate of John McEntee Bowman on front paste-down, foxing and repairs, small tears; very good. Tooley 37 (#2526) $425

6. [ALKEN, HENRY] Nimrod, i.e. Apperley, Charles James. The Memoirs of the Life of John Mytton, Esq. London: Rudolph Ackermann , 1835. vi, 110 pp. 9 hand-colored aquatint plates, including frontispiece. (8vo) 20.7x13 cm. (8½x5”), brown cloth, gilt lettering, red cloth chemise, slipcase.” Important book for the sporting life of the period, aptly described by Newton as “a biography of a real man that reads like a work of fiction.” Tooley 66. Slipcase worn with sunned spine; binding worn, professionally rebacked, rubbing; leaves a bit browned and foxed; very good. (#2527) $950

9. ALLINGHAM, WILLIAM. Autograph Letter Signed. Four pages. August 27 [1867], Lymington. To Moncure Conway (1832-1907), American abolitionist and author who moved to England in the 1860's to join the non-conformist artistic and intellectual community, becoming friends with Dickens, Carlyle, Browning, etc. “... I must tell you how the land lies: Tennyson is away, in Devonshire or thereabouts. I went down with him last week & returned here for business reasons yesterday- am to rejoin him in a few days if I can... I cannot be expliciter [sic], because my circumstances are vague. Do come if you can- & send a telegram [underlined]. I am only in a lodging- will feed you most gladly, - cannot sleep you (my ink is dried out)....” etc. Very good with light fold marks. (#2583) $550

10. ALLINGHAM, WILLIAM. Day and Night Songs. London: G. Philip & Son, 1884. New Edition. Original blue cloth, beveled boards with superb gilt cover illustration of sun and sun rays and stars, gilt lettering and design on spine. Presentation Copy from the Author: “To Mrs. Hunter, from W. Allingham, Midsummer, 1884.” A brilliant, almost mint cover with gilt as bright as new! Small stain on endpaper, which has very small piece of tape on verso. A strikingly fine copy of a beautiful book, made more desirable by its presentation inscription. (#2392) $850

11. ALLINGHAM, WILLIAM. Poems. London: Chapman and Hall, 1850. First edition. Presentation Copy: “To Mrs. Ferguson from W. Allingham,” on front free endpaper. Mrs. Ferguson was the wife of Samuel Ferguson, noted Irish poet and most important Ulster poet of the 19th Century. Letters from Allingham to Samuel Ferguson are well-documented. Bound in calf binding with cross-hatching blindstamped designs. AEG. Contains half-title. Allingham's scarce first book, which contains the first form of many of the author's revised poems including “The Fairies,” his most popular poem. Backstrip repaired, some chipping, wear- but a very nice copy indeed of an important early Pre-Raphaelite associate's first book. (#2501) $2,250
Superb Arts and Crafts Embroidery

15. [ARTS & CRAFTS - ORIGINAL ART] Two Charcoal Drawings for Stained Glass, Late 19th Century. Offered here are two superb and large original charcoal drawings for stained glass. They are done by Ida Kay (1881-1959), circa 1900, a promising artist and designer at the Birmingham Municipal School of Art. According to Peter Cormack, (noted scholar of 19th- and 20th-century British and American stained glass, William Morris, and the Arts and Crafts Movement), Ida Kay was one of the stained glass students taught by the famed Henry A. Payne at the Birmingham Municipal School of Art in the early 1900s. The labels refer to their inclusion in the National Competition for Schools of Art, in which the work of the award-winning entries (from students throughout the UK) was exhibited at the South Kensington (now Victoria & Albert) Museum. In a 1906 issue of the “The Art Workers’ Quarterly,” under the heading, “Arts and Crafts Exhibition at Grafton Gallery,” the following is offered: “The beautiful series by Walter Crane were shown... the Committee of the Society again offered to the public, in the present exhibition, the results of its selection... Phoebe Traquair... Misses May Morris... and the beautiful series by Walter Crane. The new quarters of the Arts and Crafts Exhibition Society has the advantage of greater facilities for the display of stained glass, and the works were of high merit, under the superintendence of Mr. Henry A. Payne... a panel very rich in colour represented the “Wine of Circe,” by Ida Kay’[neither of the two being sold here]. The charcoal drawings are superbly rendered, large size, and full of the gentle line and aesthetic Arts and Crafts flair distinctive of the movement at the turn of the century in England. Measurements are: 72 x 51cm and 57 x 43 cm. One with the inscription: “National Silver Medal,” and the other inscribed, “Part of a set for which a bronze medal was awarded.” A few very minor repairs, a few open tears. Fragile paper mounted onto backing, framed. In excellent condition. A rare and certainly significant pair of designs for stained glass of very high quality and beauty. Sizable shipping fees added on. (#2577) $3,250
16. AUSTEN, JANE. Pride and Prejudice. London: T. Egerton, 1813. Second edition. 12mo. Three volumes. Contemporary half calf over marbled boards, spine gilt with leather lettering pieces (two perished, one with partial loss). Half-title are not present. The second edition is scarcer than the first. According to Gilson, the publishing history is rather obscure (The size of the edition is not known). However, it is know that the second edition was entirely reset, resulting in occasional variations with the page as well as spelling and punctuation and wording (Gilson A4 has a list of alterations). Covers and spines scuffed with some splitting along extremities, fore-edges slightly bumped in areas, joints strengthened. There is scattered light foxing and neat contemporary ownership inscriptions on title-page of each volume. (#1949) $11,000

17. AUSTEN, JANE. Mansfield Park. Philadelphia: Carey & Lea, 1832. First American edition. Two Volumes. Original publisher’s cloth-backed, drab boards, lettering labels on spine (trace remnants, small contemporary institutional labels perished or remnant only). The exceedingly scarce first American edition, virtually non-existent in the original binding. One of 1250 printed. Very few copies of Austen American first editions have survived. As of 1997, “no appearance of the 1832 Mansfield Park at auction has been trace” (Gilson, rev. ed., 1997). A part from this copy, a survey of ABPC and AE records only one unsophisticated copy sold in the last 30 years (Gilson B4). Volumes cocked, few short splits at spine tips, generally light wear and staining to boards, corners rubbed, hinges tend, pastedowns loosened volume 1, scattered foxing throughout, occasionally heave volume 2, small chips at deckle, old penciled numerals on front endpapers, paper repairs on two leaves in volume 1 with no loss of text. (#1948) (pictured bottom left) $9,500

18. BAILEY, PHILIP JAMES. The Angel World, and Other Poems. London: W. Pickering, 1850. First edition. Original blue blindstamped cloth with bold central gilt wreath enclosing lettering, gilt decorated spine with lettering. 104pp. AEG. An uncommon work by Bailey, who was admired in by the Pre-Raphaelite in their very early critique of the poetry of that period. Frontispiece woodcut illustration, title with red initials. A fine copy. Very scarce. (#2468) $325

21. BADNALL, RICHARD. Zelinda; A Persian Tale. London: Whittaker, Treacher & Co., 1830. First edition. Bound in full contemporary wavy grain calf with bold gilt vine and blossom pattern on both covers and spine, beautiful crimson wavy silk endsheets. Inscribed by the author to his son, William Badnall. A fascinating and vanishingly scarce book of poetry by Richard Badnall, silk, ribbon and button tycoon of the early 1800's in Leek, Staffordshire and a man whose riches to rags story could make an entertaining if not sad novel. Through bad investments, he lost his fortune and nearly landed in debtor's prison. Somehow, during this time he seemed to be able to write poetry, and this volume was received with some praise, though acclaim never landed Badnall reputation, much less remuneration from his writings. He also wrote a treatise on Silk Trade (1828), a book on politics (183) and another on Railroad Improvement (1833), all exceedingly rare. Besides our copy of Zelinda, no copies of any of these books were found at the time of research. Laid in is a handwritten memo from the Society of Genealogists of London, from Howard H. Cotterell, explaining some details of Badnall's lineage and also citing some of his works mentioned here. Bookplate of Russell Markland. Some rubbing to calf. Book is near fine internally. (#1332) $1,500

28. [BINDING, FINE- R. R. ADAMS] Carlyle, Thomas [Samuel Arthur Jones, ed.]. Collectanea. Canton: The Kirgate Press, 1903. First edition. 4to. Superb intensely ornate decorative and inlaid binding by RALPH RANDOLPH ADAMS, an innovative binder in the early 1900's who revitalized the Viennese inlay or mosaic technique in fine binding. ONE OF ONLY 15 COPIES ON IMPERIAL JAPAN PAPER. TEG, others uncut. Bound in full brown morocco; the front cover is nearly completely filled with ornate leaf and stylized floral design impressed in the leather, inlaid black petals arranged in groups with gilt stamped internal designs and inlaid black petals, similar designs on back cover and spine From “Brush and Pencil,” 1904: “Randolph Adams, whose magnificent bindings in Viennese inlay have become so well known of late... and wonderful mosaic designs in leather, surpass, it is said, anything of the sort hitherto attempted by either ancient or modern binders, and his bindings are in the collections of many well-known connoisseurs.” An important, though perhaps lesser known American fine bookbinder. Margins of spine slightly, corners very slightly rubbed, an extremely tight and solid binding, near fine. (#1883) $2,750

31. [BINDING, FINE- DE SAUTY] Salaman, Malcolm C. The Etchings of Sir Francis Seymour Haden, P.R.E. London: Halton and Truscott Smith, 1923. First edition. Large quarto. Sumptuously bound by Donnelley [stamped in gilt pallet, front dentelle]: designed and finished by Alfred de Sauty in full crushed dark green morocco with lavish central circular gilt designs, inlaid red morocco “H” square blindstamped sections each with gilt dots and four leaf and heart devices at the corners, repeated on both covers. Spine with raised bands, six gilt panels; inner dentelles with gilt ruling and similar leaf and heart devices. A magnificent, lavish binding by de Sauty, made more enchanting by the following: on one of the last page (following original cloth covers and spine) is a special printed page with ornate gilt stamped box and label: “This Book” after which is printed in pen: “...was sewn by E. Dvorak, [was] forwarded by J. Todd, [was] designed & finished by 'Alfred de Sauty. Dec 1st, 1925’ the latter written in long-hand by de Sauty. Margins of spine on cover slightly worn, else fine. Exceedingly scarce thus, and probably shown in one of the Donnelly exhibitions. Matching felt-lined contemporary slipcase. Bookplate of Neva & Guy Littell, president of R. R. Donnelley. (#2120) $3,750

32. [BINDING, FINE- EMILY DANIEL] Woods, Margaret Woods. Songs. Oxford: Daniel Press, 1896. First edition. Superbly bound by Emily Daniel at the Daniel Press consisting of full stiff vellum decorated with all-over gold stamped florets with painted red highlights on both covers, spine with gilt lettering and with Daniel's characteristic snapping silver clasps. A picture of nearly the same binding, though with slightly different floret designs is given in full color in Tidcombe (Plate 43). Rear cover yellowed. Clasps in perfect working order. Some light foxing within. Emily Daniel, wife of Daniel Press' founder Henry Daniel, worked closely with Katharine Adams, and in 1901, the latter exhibited fifty-six bindings at Worcester House, the home of the Daniel Press. According to Tidcombe, Daniel may have had lessons early on from Katharine Adams. Emily Daniel bindings are extremely scarce. (#2258) $3,250

33. [BINDING, FINE- “E. G.”] Browning, Elizabeth Barrett. Sonnets From the Portuguese. Boston: Small, Maynard and Company, 1902. First edition thus. Elegantly bound by “E. G.” (signed in gilt pallet rear dentelle and dated 1907) in full maroon crushed morocco with bold gilt heart-shaped petal design on all four corners on both covers, gilt dots and ruling, with similar motif on spine and with vertical lettering in one compartment, similar gill dentelles. This copy expertly hand-illumined, with bold metallic gold on every page for each initial letter (designed by Bertram Grosvenor Goodhue), in many colors, including title page and colophon. We have not found an attribution for the signed binding, which may have been done by a member of the Craftsman's Guild of Boston who were known to also do fine hand-coloring of special volumes. Most rare and quite beautiful. Fine. (#2586) $2,250

35. [BINDING, FINE- “THE GARRET”] De Pezay, Marquis and Claude Joseph Dorat. Delia Bathing and Celia’s Doves. London: Vizetelly & Co., [1890]. Exquisite full morocco inlaid binding signed in rear turn-in, “The Garret.” A striking binding in the manner of the Guild of Women Binders or the closely allied Hampstead Bindery, featuring Nouveau-style wandering stems with onlay green leaves and terminating in red onlay flower designs, orange onlay designs, elaborate gilt fillet on both covers, spine and dentelles. A wonderfully conceived binding and no doubt the work of an experienced binder, perhaps executed by Guido Bruno (1884-1942), known as “the Barnum of Bohemia,” who worked out of an establishment in NYC called, “The Garret” (note same spelling). It was known that for a fee, tourists could observe “genuine Bohemian” artists at work there, and in 1916, the New York Times reported a fire at the premises which destroyed art treasures, rare manuscripts and books. Translated by H. G. Keene. Illustrated with copper engravings after C. Eisen. Limited to 1000 Copies, 250 for Sale in the U. S., and Numbered #3. Some foxing throughout, occasionally heavy. Binding is near fine. A rare and splendid example of early 20th Century bookbinding. (#2572) (pictured below) $3,500

40. [BINDING, FINE- GUILD OF WOMEN BINDERS] Song of Solomon. London: Guild of Women Binders, 1897. First edition. 4to. Superb full goatskin binding with striking image of robed woman raising hands in stylized garden, no doubt the work of Annie S. MacDonald who developed the technique: "MacDonald came up with her own technique for modeled leatherwork, and she proceeded to teach this to any of the other class members [at the workshop of Walter B. Blaikie of A. & J.] who were interested. Annie MacDonald's method of leather modeling did not involve cutting the leather, or raising the design into high relief, and it was done on the book after it was covered" (Tidcombe). Spine with lettering modeled lengthwise; rear cover with gouged design. Thick dentelles with heavy gilt 'picture frame' borders. Illustrated with gorgeous full-page woodcut drawings by H. Granville Fell. Fine. With Karlslake's Guild ticket pasted onto rear free fly: "Similar Books can be obtained from KARSLAKE & CO., 64 Charing Cross Road, London." This is a one-of-a-kind binding (versus the stock bindings for many of the limited edition books issued by the Guild in the vellum series) and represents the very finest work of one of their chief designers and artisans. (#2141) $3,750
Item 41, Front Cover

Binding Featured in “Bindings of Tomorrow,” 1902

by members of the Guild at rear denoting H.K. as probable bookbinder. A fine example of Guild craftsmanship, both covers well-balanced with bold leaf and flower motif, stippled gilt borders and interlocking lines, spine with exquisite longitudinal stem (stippled line) resulting in three tulip blossom and title at top. With striking gauffered edges (all edges gilt) consisting of diagonal blossom and leaf motif. Armorial bookplate of Adam Rivers Steele, prominent Scottish family arms. Vignette title-page, engraved vignettes throughout. A fine copy of the binding; internally very minor brownstoning to just a few leaves, else fine. (#2149) $2,500

42. [BINDING, FINE- GUILD OF WOMEN BINDERS] Hall, S.C. (ed.). Book of Gems. London: Saunders and Otley, 1837. Exquisite full tan crushed morocco binding by the Guild of Women Binders (signed in gilt pallet front dentelle), as well, a notation

45. [BINDING, FINE- ANASTASIA POWER] Gosse, Edmund. On Viol and Flute. London: C. Whittingham and Co. at the Chiswick Press for Kegan Paul, Trench, Trubner & Co., 1890. First printing. Gorgeous Arts and Crafts full reddish-brown morocco by Anastasia Power with her initials signed in monogram on rear turn in, “AP” (interlocking). Covers magnificently gilt-tooled with elaborate double-ruled square boxes (eighteen in total) with dots in the corners and a circular arrangement of 12 roses on green onlays/interlocking stems on front cover. The rear cover has the same square patterning, but no central rose design. Spine with six panels, five of which are attractively stamped in gilt floral and leaf motif. No. 44 of 50 Copies Only on Large Paper, signed by the printer. A fine copy of a most attractive and period binding. Though a pencil annotation on the front fly indicates that the binding is by Alice Pattinson as evidenced by a pencil inscription on the verso of the front free endleaf which reads, “Spring Gardens Gal[ery]. Panton Club. July 1925. Mrs. Loosely. Book + binding A. P.” Annie Power was trained by Douglas Cockerell and worked with Sylvia Stebbing and then joined C. R. Ashbee's Guild of Handicraft c. 1902 where she produced fine bindings until 1905 or thereabouts. A stunning period binding full of the Arts & Crafts flavor of the early 20th Century. (#2573) $3,500

47. [BINDING, FINE - SARAH PRIDEAUX] Prideaux, Sarah. An Historical Sketch of Bookbinding. London: Lawrence & Bullen, 1893. First edition. Exquisitely bound by Sarah Prideaux in full blue rich morocco with elaborate and bold gilt blocked and stippled blossom pattern on both covers, all edges gilt with gaufered design on all edges, gilt ruled dentelles, Prideaux's gilt stamped pallet signature on rear dentelle, *S T P * 1895* A gorgeous and early Prideaux binding with facsimile of Prideaux letter stating, “This is one of these designs made for my book on binding. I envision it the best formal design I have made- on account of its being both simple and effective. A combination always tried for and not too often achieved.” Illustrated with two full page color plates. Fine copy of book and binding. With Phyllis Goodhart Gordan's bookplate, famed Renaissance scholar and book collector. A wonderful binding by one of the greatest women bookbinder's of the modern era. (#2518) $6,250

48. [BINDING, FINE- PAUL-ROMAIN REPARLIER] Deshouieres (Antoinette du Ligier de la Garde). Poesies. Paris: Chez la Veuve de Sebastien Mabre-Cramoy, 1688. First edition. Exquisitely bound c.1890 by Reparlier in blue goatskin with ornate and innovative covers tooled in gilt with triple fillet border, leafy stems, flower-heads, and a centerpiece composed of a flower within a frame surrounded by similar motifs. The spine divided into six panels, lettered in the second and dated in the third, the others with a vase containing a flower and leafy sprigs, the edges of the boards tooled with a gilt double fillet, the turn-ins with gilt rolls, marbled endleaves, gilt edges. A wonderful example by the famous bookbinder Paul-Romain Reparlier (1858-1900). The frontispiece engraving is not called for, but taken from a later edition. A fine copy. (#1990) $2,750

50. [BINDING, FINE- RIVIERE] Morris, William. Gothic Architecture. Hammersmith: Kelmscott Press, 1893. First edition. Superbly bound by RIVIERE & SON in full crushed tan morocco with arabesque scrollwork border leaving attractive negative space on both covers, spine in six compartments, four of which ornately gilt and with gilt '1893' at foot of spine. Ornate gilt dentelles, light blue wavy silk moiré endpapers and doublures, gilt rules on edges of boards. Original wrappers bound in at end. This early Kelmscott title was printed in public demonstrations during the 1893 Arts and Crafts Exhibition held in the New Gallery, becoming one of the exposition's most popular attractions. First appearance of the four-line initials and the first book Morris printed in the 16mo format. A wonderfully pleasing binding. Very fine. In felt-lined slipcase. (#1897) $3,250 bands on spine, gilt dentelles, top edges gilt, others uncut. First issue with 27 instead of 275 (for page 27). Spine very evenly sunned. A fine copy of a gorgeous Riviere binding. (#1969) $9,500

TENNYSON’S FIRST BOOK

52. [BINDING, FINE- RIVIERE] Tennyson, Alfred Lord. Poems, by Two Brothers. London: Printed for W. Simpkin and R. Marshall, 1827. First edition. MAGNIFICENTLY BOUND FULL BLACK CRUSHED MOROCCO BY RIVIERE AND SON with lavishly ornate gilt designs on both covers and spine consisting of four different flower motifs (in ovals) repeating in seven rows and five columns taking up all of the central space on the covers and the outside border comprised of sprig and leaf pattern, all surrounded by geometric ruling; spine with six oval floral motifs, lettering and date in gilt. Leaf and sprig design is carried onto inner dentelles, maroon endpapers. Side edges gilt with two lines. Top edges gilt, others untrimmed. 58. [BINDING, FINE- PETER VERBURG] Taylor, Jeremy. The Rule and Exercises of Holy Living. London: William Pickering, 1847. First edition thus. Sumptuously bound full blue crushed morocco binding by Peter Verburg, signed with his characteristic monogram on rear dentelle. A graceful binding with encircling leaf and bloom design between concentric rules and inlaid in the petals with turquoise morocco on cover and spine. Rear cover and dentelles with gilt ruling. Peter Verburg, a pupil of the famed Ellen Gates Starr in Chicago, was an accomplished Chicago bookbinder who studied for some time under Douglas Cockerell at Hull House in Chicago, and then later by Ralph Randolph Adams at his bindery in New York. Verburg later went on to become the director of the bindery at the Merrymount Press under D. B. Updike. A beautiful example of Verburg's work. Engraved frontispiece, rubricated title page. All edges gilt. Fine in blue cloth slipcase. (#2140) $3,250

60. [BINDING, FINE- CURTIS WALTERS] Fairchild, Lee. Don Juan's Bouquet. New York: Edwin C. Hill, 1903. First edition. Superb Arts and Crafts binding by Curtis Walters, famed American binder who studied bookbinding with William Matthews, the Club Bindery and Stikeman. He was perhaps best known for his mosaic bindings, but also for inventing new ways to improve upon inlaid binding methods. This is a marvelous and intricate binding with lavish gilt floral patterning along with all-over stippled areas, inlaid petals and Nouveau-style stems and repeating leaf patterns. As well, the doublures are full-size light blue crushed morocco with darker impressed heart designs and ruling, blue silk mauve free endsheets. To round out this special book, This is Copy “Number One” of 500, signed by the publisher E.C. Hill, and the author has painted dozens of expertly crafted heads of women in hats and bows; bee, boat, etc. throughout in a style reminiscent of Harrison Fisher, and he has inscribed the following poem and presentation on the copyright page: “To H. A. Mertz (minor author)- These culled flowers I entrust to you, So keep them ever warm with sun and fresh with dew. So shall you have a fragrant booked Bouquet, Some quiet nook a sweetening alway. Lee Fairchild.” Spine somewhat rubbed at margin, expertly repaired, internally near fine. (#2509) $2,750

61. [BINDING, FINE- ZAEHNSFORF] Bain, F. W. A Heifer of the Dawn. London: James Parker and Co., 1904. First edition. Sumptuously bound by Zaehnsdorf in 1904, signed with gilt bookbinder's pallet on lower front dentelle: “Bound by Zaehnsdorf 1904,” and further with the Zaehnsdorf “Exhibition” seal stamped into the lower portion of the rear silk pastedown. A magnificent period binding by Zaehnsdorf in rich full dark blue crushed morocco with very elaborate stippled gilt pattern forming a weaving and swirling pattern on all four corners and extending well towards the center of the covers, with two crown devices pointing in at each corner, and with four stylized clover motifs inlaid in red morocco at each corner. Five raised bands with four heavily gilt and two left for lettering, side edges gilt, attractive gilt stipple design is carried onto dentelles, rich blue silk endsheets and pastedowns. Top edges gilt, others uncut. Extremely fine with no signs of any wear. A remarkable survival and extremely interesting pairing of binding and book: Bain was an oddball history professor who wrote a number of allegorical books (similar to this one) in which he claimed to have been the translator, but after most had been published, it finally became clear he was not the translator, but actually the author. (#2000) $3,250

62. [BINDING, FINE- ZAEHNSFORF] Bullen, A. H. (ed.). Musa Proterva: Love-poems of the Restoration. [London]: Privately Printed (imprint: Richard Clay), 1902. First edition. Superb Exhibition full crushed morocco binding (crimson) by Zaehnsdorf consisting of lavish all-over gilt blossom motif both covers and spine, maroon silk endsheets, gilt dentelles (signed 'Bound by Zaehnsdorf' in gilt pallet on front dentelle) and with Zaehnsdorf special 'Exhibition' seal stamped into rear pastedown. TEG, others untrimmed. A near fine copy with even sunning to spine, very small ink stain to rear cover (barely noticeable). (#2297) $2,250

64. [BINDING, FINE- ZAEHNSFORF] Shakespeare, William. Shakespeare's Sonnets. Boston: Copeland and Day, 1897. First edition. Superbly bound Exhibition Binding by Zaehnsdorf in full reddish brown morocco with all-over and intricate gilt floral and sprig design on both covers, copious gilt stippling and ruling forming a wavy geometric pattern, and with the letters “W” and “S” for William Shakespeare interlocking and appearing in repeating fashion; similar motif on spine. Gilt dentelles, marbled endsheets. With Zaehnsdorf Exhibition Binding seal stamped in rear pastedown. Type and decorations throughout designed by Bertram Grosvenor Goodhue. A lovely binding and book. Very small string mark to one edge, very slight edge rubbing, else near fine. (#2585) $1,850

65. [BINDING, FINE- OTTO ZAHN] Swinburne, Algernon Charles. Poems and Ballads. Second Series. London: Spottiswoode and Co. for Chatto and Windus, 1878. First edition. Sumptuously bound in 1906 by Otto Zahn at the Toof Bindery (signed with both names and the date in gilt on the front turn-in) in brown goatskin with long stems and flower heads and leaves around flowing asymmetric ruling. The spine divided into six panels with gilt compartments, lettered in the second and at the foot, the others with flowers, stems and leaves, turn-ins and matching inside joints tooled in gilt with two fillets, flowers, stems and leaves, marbled endleaves, top edge gilt, the others untrimmed. The original cloth spine and a cover have been bound in at the end and an ANS inscribed “From the author” has been laid into a leaf at the front. There is also a loosely inserted autograph letter signed by Swinburne: “It would give me pleasure to know the descendant of Admiral Collingwood, for whom my father had a sincere esteem, but I am not well enough to receive visitors. I return the literature, etc., relating to Nelson and Trafalgar which is interesting...” S. C. Toof set up his printing business in Memphis in 1876. He was later joined by Otto Zahn (1857-1928), the German binder who had worked for Zaehnsdorf and eventually became President of the company. Bookplate of George Zabriskie, presenting the volume to “Joe and Georgia” in 1945. A fine copy with slight rubbing to joints (#1995) $2,500

66. [BINDING, FINE] Stevenson, Mary E. Stevenson and Allied Families Genealogical and Biographical. New York: The American Historical Society, 1926. First edition. Large 4to. Exquisitely bound as issued in full rich dark blue morocco with elaborate inlaid red, light blue and still lighter blue morocco patterning, bold gilt block heraldic design on center with multiple gilt bordered lines and stippling on both covers (rear cover with different herald design), exquisite full-size red morocco doublures with gorgeous gilt-stamped floral design front and back, silk mauve endsheets. A magnificent book with hand-colored (and initials and vignettes inside), full-page tissue-guarded copper plates as well as heralds and coats of arms in many colors including bold blocked silver highlight. Printed on Japan Vellum. Fair to say a thoroughly lavish production without ever running the risk of being overly garish or intrusive. An absolutely fine copy. (#2517) $2,750
67. [BLAKE, WILLIAM] Darwin, Erasmus. The Botanic Garden. London: J. Johnson, 1791, 1791. First and Third Editions. Large quarto. Two parts. London: J. Johnson, 1791. Two volumes. Part 1, The Economy of Vegetation is the First Edition; Part 2, The Loves of the Plants, is the Third Edition. Bound together in contemporary calf, morocco label on spine. Complete with all 20 plates as called for, some folding, which include five plates by William Blake ("The Fertilization of Egypt" being the most widely known). Also present is the binder’s instructions bound in between the two volumes on light green paper with directions for placement of the plates. Two full-page frontispiece engravings. Nice fine and firm full calf binding, professionally strengthened. (#1086) $2,750

69. BOSWELL, JAMES. The Life of Samuel Johnson. London: Printed by Henry Baldwin for Charles Dilly, 1791. First Edition. First Issue. The earliest possible state, satisfying all uncorrected points given by Pottle (see below). Two volumes, quarto, pp. xii, [16], contents, and errata, 516pp.; 1p, 588pp. i.e. 586). Superb full speckled modern brown leather. A stunning, fine copy with virtually no wear to the text; binding fine. Exquisite engraved frontispiece portrait of Johnson by J. Heath after a painting by Joshua Reynolds, two engraved plates, one comprising facsimiles of Johnson’s handwriting and the other ‘Round Robin’ plate also with facsimile signatures. First state points: Volume One: “gve” for “give” along with added space, p. 135, line 10; dele out in errata page; “upon” repeated, P.48, line 8 from bottom; “reollection” P.115, line 8 from bottom; “exhibited” p.117, line 2 from bottom; “condescence” p.275, line 2 from bottom; “Harvey” p.291, line 9 from bottom. Both cancels Mm and Nn (pp. 271-4) present. Volume Two: all mis-numbered pages: 229, 408, 497, 504, 555, 585 and 586 uncorrected; five cancelled leaves: E, pp. 29-30; Oo, pp.287-8; Qq, pp.301-2); Zw, pp.353-4; Eee, pp.395-6. Importantly, the following typographical errors in text as given by Pottle uncorrected (possible determinants for prior states): “painted” vs. later correction “printed” p.78, line 23; “MDCCCLXXIV” vs. “MDCCCLXXIV” p.92, line 6; “William” p.275, line 12; “us” omitted before “enquire” p.352, line 11; “composition” wrongly referred to as “imposition” in the errata; “mother tongue (i.e. not hyphenated) p.562, line 3 from bottom. No half-titles, as issued. The earliest possible state with all uncorrected points satisfied. Regarding Boswell’s crowning achievement, Carlyle said, “questionless, the universal favour entertained for it is well merited. In worth as a Book we have rated it beyond any other product of the eighteenth century: all Johnson’s own Writings, laborious and in their kind genuine above most, stand on a quite inferior level to it...” NCBEL II 1214. Pottle 79. Rothschild 463. (#1119) $7,500

72. [BOYLE, ELEANOR VERE] A Children’s Summer. London: Addey and Co., 1853. First edition. Oblong folio. Original fine-grained blue cloth with bold gilt lettering on cover, maroon cloth spine. Original yellow endsheets with inscription dated 1853. Eleven etchings on steel by E. V. B. (illustrated in prose and rhyme by M.L.B. and W.M.C. Full-page impressed plates, EVB’s magnum opus, these illustrations represent her finest output in book illustration. Rodney Engen describes her as the “only competent woman illustrator, draughtsman to emerge before 1860,” and Gordon Ray points out “[EVB] has as unmistakable style as that of any Victorian illustrator. Boyle had a close association with the Pre-Raphaelites, and it is hard to miss the early style influences from Millais, Arthur Hughes and Burne-Jones. In fact, Rossetti decided to illustrate Allingham’s famed “Music Master” only because the poem which Allingham suggested he use as a source had already been so perfectly captured in an illustration in “Child’s Play,” EVB’s first book published in the proceeding year. Covers worn and discolored, spine worn. Hinges loose. But all present and plates generally clean and bright, and an exceedingly scarce survival for what is now considered one of the classic illustrated books of the mid-1800’s in England. No copies on net and only a few auction records for this rare title. (#2281) $2,750

73. BROWNING, ELIZABETH BARRETT. An Essay on Mind, with other Poems [The Doheny Copy]. London: James Duncan, 1826. First edition, mixed first and second impressions. Original drab gray boards, original printed label on spine with title and price. FIRST EDITION with mixed first impression/second impression points. There are two impressions known to exist. The first impression has page numbers 12, 24 and 148 perfectly aligned; as well, in the first impression, p. 75, line 15 reads “found.” Second impressions have page numbers 12, 24 and 148 misaligned and p. 75, line 15 reads “fo und.” Our copy has ‘found’ on line 15 of page 75 (i.e. first impression); page numbers 24 and 148 are misaligned (as found in the second impression), but page number 12 is correctly aligned (as found in first impression). Rare copies have been found with mixed sheets of the first and second impression, and our copy represents one of the earliest impressions to be found in recent years. Estelle Doheny’s Copy, with her bookplate. As well, the book was originally owned by Ernest George Salt, with his armorial bookplate affixed to front pastedown. Salt was a prominent doctor from Edinburgh whose lineage traces back to the famous Salt family. A superb copy of Elizabeth Barrett’s [Browning] first book in its original state and bearing the original paper label on spine (spine paper chipped, but label mostly in tact). Occasional Browning, hinges in tact. Contains a rare prospectus and specimen of the “Modern Traveller” inserted at the very end, a 12 page chapbook-style booklet printed on yellow paper with superb woodcut cover. Printed for James Duncan, London, 1826. Housed in contemporary full morocco slip-off case. (#2142) $4,500

74. BUCHANAN, ROBERT. The Fleshy School of Poetry and Other Phenomena of the Day [With ALS from Buchanan tipped-in]. London: Strahan and Co., 1872. First edition. Original printed wrappers with engraved illustration on cover of wild garlic, hound’s tongue, etc. (odiferous flowers). Celebrated and influential, if not scathing treatise accusing the Pre-Raphaelite artists of, among immorality and perhaps helping to increase PRB exposure through subsequent dialogues. Most notably was D.G. Rossetti’s rebuttal which came in the form of a letter in the Athenaeum entitled, “The Stealthy School of Criticism.” An excellent copy in its original printed wrapper and with most of the spine still present (rarely seen). A three-page autograph letter by Buchanan asking a Miss Marie de Hey if she would like to purchase “Madcap Prince” for her own use... “only once reproduced in town-- for Mis ??’s benefit at the Olympic last May. I fancy the part would suit you, and the piece is light and effective enough. Or I could arrange with you for a new picturesque narrative drama for stary purposes(?!).” Some tears in ALS, corners of book slightly ben and covers only faintly age-marked, else very good or better. Internally clean and bright. A rare offering. (#934) $850

76. [BURNE-JONES, EDWARD] The Flower Book.
London: Henri Piazza et Cie. for The Fine Art Society, 1905. First edition. Large 4to. Original full dark green publisher's crushed morocco binding with gilt fillet borders both covers and spine, triplet dots on corners, spine with six gilt-blocked compartments, lettering and date. Original gray endpapers. Color half-title in red and green, limitation page ('ninety two, F.A.S.' hand-written... of 300 Copies), title page in green and black. 38 magnificent color plates from Burne-Jones watercolors, all printed on one side only, each preceded by a leaf with only printed title, four leaves at end with 'lists of flowers.' These incomparable color illustrations are unique both in composition as well as the process used to accomplish the bright, vivid coloration. They were produced in Paris by Henri Piazza in collotype and pochoir. The highly decorative illustrations are not flowers at all, but compositions of many varied subjects and allegories, suggested by the names of flowers. The calligraphic printed text in the beginning of book was hand-written by Georgiana Burne-Jones. A landmark in printing and color reproduction, and certainly one of the great Pre-Raphaelite printed books. Some slight cover discoloration, barely noticeable, else an extremely fine copy. In a gorgeous full green silk handmade box by noted designer Caroli Veenstra. (#1871) $15,000

77. [BURNET, VIRGINIA LEE] Mike Mulligan and His Steam Shovel.

Simon Nowell-Smith's copy, famed bibliographic scholar, with his bookplate at front, along with his wife's bookplate (Judith Adam's Nowell-Smith, art dealer) as well as 'Leslie Mead.' First edition, first issue of this scarce and important Chesterton title, with rhymes and sketches by him throughout. Occasional browning due to acidic paper, yet clean and near fine externally. Scarce. (#2229) $850

90. CLough, ARTHUR. [GEORGE MACDONALD’S COPY] Signed by Him, with His Superb Bookplate and with ALS from MacDonald's Wife. The Bothie of Toper-na-Fuosich. A Long Vacation Pastoral. Oxford: Francis MacPherson, 1848. First edition. Near contemporary red morocco backed marbled boards. All edges red. George MacDonald's Own Copy, with his signature on title page and with his impressive Blakean bookplate affixed to the front pastedown. As well, laid in is a four-page ALS by MacDonald's wife, Louisa to a Mr. Smith, “Mr. MacDonald was so very ill in the night that it was quite necessary for him to keep quiet in hopes of being able to go through all the fatigues and work of tomorrow...” A chatty and informative letter dating to MacDonald's North American lecture tour, 1872-73, a time when his Louisa often took care of her husband's correspondence due to his busy schedule and frequent lapses into exhaustion. An enlightening letter with reference to MacDonald's extremities in health during the North American tour. Title page printed in red and black. Clough was an English poet, educationalist and the devoted assistant to Florence Nightingale. Clough has been called 'one of the most forward-looking English poets of the 19th Century, in part due to a sexual frankness that shocked his contemporaries.” A superbly preserved copy, near fine, made intriguing by its ownership legacy. (#1860) $1,250
91. [COBDEN-SANDERSON, T. J.] Ecce Mundus: Industrial Ideals And The Book Beautiful. Hammersmith: Hammersmith Publishing Society, 1902. Not paginated. (Small 4to) original vellum-backed boards, spine lettered in black. One of a handful of copies in vellum and boards (instead of plain blue boards with glassine dust wrapper) of the first publication of the Hammersmith Publishing Society, done in the manner of the Kelmscott press, with expressive text by one of the leading British practitioners of the Arts and Crafts movement. Printed at the Chiswick Press by Charles Wittingham & Co. Light wear and soiling to binding; internally fine. (#2546) $275

94. [CRANE, WALTER] The First of May: A Fairy Masque Presented in a Series of 52 Designs. London: Henry Sotheran & Co., 1881. First edition. Elephant Folio (16 x 18 inches). Bound in lavish red crushed morocco with ornate gilt-tooled geometric borders surrounding front and back covers, six raised bands with elaborate gilt-tooled panels, gilt dentelles, marbled endpapers by Henry Sotheran. SIGNED BY WALTER CRANE, No. 7 of a Limited Edition of 300 Copies on India Proof paper. 57 sheets (and one limitation sheet), numbered I to LVI, each with magnificent drawing by Crane comprising illustrated panels with decorative borders. Many consider this to be Crane's crowning achievement, and surely the sheer number and quality of design bears this out. The book is boldly dedicated to Charles Darwin in a preliminary sheet. Most of these illustrations were done in 1878 and 1879 while Crane was visiting the Sherwood Forest, the setting in which Wise chose for his fairy tale adventure in a Mayday variation on “A Midsummer Night's Dream.” The drawings appear in the book as high quality photogravure by Goupil and Company, a process Crane found to be highly successful. Edward Burne-Jones. “Burne-Jones greatly admired this gift book... Many other details reflect the influence of the older artist's work [Burne-Jones] such as the flowing bands of drapery for the rainbow Guardian in the ‘Procession of Spring', Cranes androgynous nudes and various perpendicular compositions which echo the gentle spiral of 'They Golden stairs', one of Burne-Jones's major works of the decade. The sumptuous binding is very tight and in excellent condition with only minor rubbing to edges and corners and a few scuffs on the wide cover surface. Internally, the book is in near fine condition, with foxing as is nearly always found with this book owing to the acid quality of the thick India Paper. The foxing is heavier to preliminary sheets and the last few pages, but quite light internally and many plates are without foxing. (#571) $1,750

Baillie (“John Ruskin: Aspects of His Thought and Teaching, 1882) thanking him for sending his paper on the character of conifers and discussing the colors of trees. “I am much struck by your remarks on the fine tints and colours of this tribe, which I have often noticed myself with admiration. I think that on the alps where the ferns affect one most, the cloud... and mist, intervening between, give a new cadence to their natural colour...” etc. A very nice letter by the renowned poet and botanist, de Tabley. With cover of the letter affixed to an unmarked page. (#2590) $175

110. DICKENS, CHARLES. American Notes for General Circulation. London: Chapman & Hall, 1842. Second edition. Two volumes. Original light brown fine grained cloth with elaborate blindstamped design on both covers and spine, gilt lettering on spine, smooth yellow endsheets. 308pp; 306pp; 6 page publisher’s prospectus at end. A superb copy in original cloth with slight sunning, else fine with cloth clean and crisp, gilt on covers bright, and all hinges fully intact. Scarce thus. (#2230) $1,750

111. DICKENS, CHARLES. A Christmas Carol, in Prose, Being a Ghost Story of Christmas. Philadelphia: Carey & Hart, 1844. First American edition. Original dark blue embossed cloth with gilt wreath motif and lettering on spine. The exceedingly scarce first American edition, published only one year after the English first and a near facsimile, with four hand-colored plates and the four half-page black and white illustrations by John Leech now appearing as full-page illustrations. With “Stave I” and title page in red and blue. A superb copy with original cloth quite clean and unrubbed with only a few faint minor water marks; the gilt on spine only slightly rubbed, corners slightly rubbed, hinges in tact. Thumbing and some browntoning internally, but minor. A near fine copy of what is now considered to be a very rare and desirable Dickens edition. (#2102) $9,500
112. DICKENS, CHARLES. Oliver Twist. London: Chapman and Hall, 1841. Third edition. In Three Volumes. Original olive green blindstamped cloth with gilt lettering on spines. Scarce third edition with new introduction by the author which was later suppressed. Contains all the original engraved plates by George Cruikshank which appeared only a few years earlier in the first edition. A strikingly gorgeous and crisp copy with cloth clean and bright and showing minimal wear. Internally, all hinges perfect, and all plates and pages clean and bright except for the front free fly and frontispiece of volume one which has a water mark (which doesn't extend into plate). A rather impressive set, scarce in this condition. (#2298) $2,250

115. EDWARDS, CYRIL. Seven Sonnets. London: W. S. Hodginson & Sons, 1934. First edition. Original full tree calf, gilt borders, as issued. 250 Copies only, specially bound by Birdsall and printed by Frank E. Seary on copper from the original unfaced plates (13) on hand made paper by Hodkinson & Sons. A fine copy with very minimal board bowing (as found), internally extremely fine and unopened. 117. FAITHFULL, EMILY. Te Deum Laudamus. London: Victoria Press, 1868. First edition. 4to. Blue cloth with beveled edges, title and gilt toothing. Colored coat of arms verso of half-title and 29 exquisite illuminated plates by Ester Faithfull Fleet (1823-1908), the publisher's sister, in brilliant chromolithography. One of Emily Faithfull's most acclaimed book, published at her Victoria Press; the printer, though not credited, was M. & N. Hanhart, who also printed the chromolithographic plates for 38 Texts, another of her books. Each of the twenty-one plates are printed on one side only on gilt-edges heavy card pages. Exceedingly scarce high-point in Victorian colorplate printing. From Princeton Library, “One of the most beautiful books published by Emily Faithfull is the Te Deum Laudamus. It is typical of the Victorian era in its rich colors and intricate decorative patterns. A new technique known as chromolithography, patented at mid-century, enabled printers to reproduce colors (using a separate stone for each color) more vividly than ever before. Also notable is the way in which text and image are interwoven, sometimes to the detriment of readability. (#2584) A superb copy, virtually fine internally.
118. FITZGERALD, EDWARD. Rubaiyat of Omar Khayyam. Needham: Printed by Southworth at The Rosemary Press, c. 1918. First edition. Miniature (1” x 4”). Original pictorial cloth covered boards of the flag of Chile. In superb custom made box with hollow area for book, green silk mauve-lined, gilt morocco covers in the mode of full morocco binding with elaborate gilt stamped design, fitting into matching red leather slipcase with raised bands and gilt label on spine, by the ROSE BINDERY, Boston. One of a number of very small printings by Rosemary Press in different bindings for the Rubaiyat. Less than 50 copies printed. Fine. Most scarce. (#2520) $650

119. [FORE-EDGE PAINTING] Young, Edward. The Complaint; or, Night Thoughts. London: Rivington, 1813. Full straight-grained maroon full morocco binding with five raised bands and gilt lettering on spine, marbled endpapers. Superb traditional style fore-edge painting showing a night rambler and his dog at a moonlit lake alongside ruins by preeminent fore-edge painter Martin Frost with his monogram and authentication ticket at front. Numerous excellent engraved plates. Slight foxing. An excellent early 19th century binding and an outstanding complementary fore-edge painting. In matching maroon cloth thumbhole slipcase. (#2467) $950

120. [GEHENNA PRESS- One of 50, Signed by Baskin] Roylance, Dale R. Flosculi Sententiarum, Printers Flowers Moralized. Northampton, Massachusetts: Gehenna Press, 1967. First edition. Deluxe Edition, Limited to 50 Copies, each numbered in roman numerals, Signed by Leonard Baskin. Deluxe Superbly bound by Arno Werner in superb full citron morocco (only first 50 copies bound such) with gilt ruling on both covers, gilt lettering on spine, together with publisher's folding box consisting of same morocco spine with gilt lettering. Printed in many colors with ornaments (arranged by Baskin) by Harold McGrath in Centaur type-face (Bruce Rogers) on handmade paper made in France in 1905. A pristine copy in fine folding box. This is copy xxii. (#1192) $1,850

122. GOETHE, JOHAN WOLFGANG. Faustus. London: Boosey and Sons, 1821. First English Edition. 4to. Contemporary or original drab boards with pictorial cover insert, later gilt leather spine made to match style. The rare first English edition, translated by Coleridge with 27 superb full-plates by Henry Moses from sketches by Moritz Retsch. Several pages with professional repairs including some with larger rice paper mending, newer endsheets, browntoning internally, cover wear. Still a presentable copy of an exceedingly scarce and important first translation of one of the greatest classics every written. (#2523) $2,750

Unique Copy, Three States of Plates

123. [GRASSET, EUGENE] Les Mois: Douze Compositions. Paris: G. de Malherbe, [1895]. First edition. Folio. Delicately bound in three quarter vellum over stunning marbled paper which has diagonal patterning in background and red-ruled borders along vellum margins; spine ornately hand-calligraphed in red, blue and gold. Front printed wrapper (gray paper) bound in front. THREE SUITES OF CHROMOTYPORGRPH PLATES (‘Gillotage’) BY GRASSET, A TOTAL OF 36 PLATES. The first series of twelve printed in soft black and white woodcut on thicker stock India proof paper; the second series (12) in full colors on China paper, and the third series (12) also in colors printed on Japan vellum. In the early 1890's, Grasset began experimenting with a new form of printing, Chromotypography, an early form of photolithography, which was invented by one of his friends, Firmin Gillot. This calendar was printed in "Gillotage," from wood engravings, a process of manual application of an acid-fast image on a zinc plate and the subsequent deepening of the nonprinting sections by etching in nitric acid. The end result is an image with vibrant, but pastel color, perfectly registered.
The technique may have caught on if not for the work-intensive and ultimately very costly process. Both Arwas and Murray Robertson date this calendar to 1896, but it was offered in the May 15, 1894 issue of La Plume, (which was dedicated to Grasset's work) thus making the calendar two years older than previously thought. La Plume offered the calendar for sale on vellum (like one suite in this copy) at 5 francs and quoted it as "extremely rare." The first suite in black and white represents proof illustrations directly from the woodblocks, before color additions. The images are exquisite examples of Grasset's style, mixing symbolist women with the flowers of gardens that change with the seasons. Grasset spent nearly 20 years of his career working for La Belle Jardinier, the Parisian department store. In 1899 he designed a second calendar for them (which La Plume offered for sale for 2.5 francs), and then again in 1904.
Murray Robertson also reproduces two projects for unrealized calendars in 1914 and 1915. (p. 100)--Arwas pages 26-28; Murray Robertson page 123. The only known copy of its kind comprising all three suites of illustrations, to our knowledge. Housed in a custom beige linen clamshell box with gilt-lettered tan calf spine label. Side and bottom edges uncut. Brilliant and untarnished, fine in every way. (#2233) $17,500

124. [GRISET, ERNEST] Greenwood, James. The Bear
Original green cloth with superb gilt design of two bears in central scene surrounded by banners and lettering, gilt lettering on spine. Eight full-page woodcut illustrations by Ernest Griset. This 'uncolored' issue is perhaps more rarer than the hand-colored edition. A strikingly well-preserved copy, very slight bumping to corners. Clean and fine internally. A classic illustrated children's book of the period. (#825) $325

125. HAKE, THOMAS GORDON. New Symbols.
Original dark green cloth with single ruled gilt border, gilt publisher's device (design) at foot of spine, lettering on spine, dark green endsheets. From grouping of books owned by William Bell Scott. Though not signed by Scott, there is a four-page prospectus laid in for the book which has two holograph lines in Scott's as well as two dates ("Legends of the Morrow, 1879, etc. ...1877 or 1878"). A perfectly fine copy. At time of writing, not copies of this scarce book on the market. (#2463) $450

126. HOGG, JAMES. Queen's Wake: A Legendary
Poem. Edinburgh: for George Goldie; Longman, Hurst, Rees, Orme and Brown, 1813. First edition.
Contemporary full polished calf with blindstamped border designs on both covers, maroon morocco label on spine, marbled endpapers. 353pp. One of Hogg's earliest works, an epic poem which was well-received and helped establish the young poet who went on to produce a generous oeuvre of poetry, novels and literary criticism. Some binding repair, very clean and bright internally. Scarce. (#2502) $550
128. HOOD, THOMAS. Humorous Poems. London: Macmillan and Co., 1893. First edition thus. 4to. Lavish Zaehnsdorf Exhibition Binding. Bound in full red rich crushed morocco with gilt scrollwork devices around edges of both covers and extending toward center, gilt rules and stippling including outside edges, ornate gilt dentelles and superb silk moiré endpapers. With Zaehnsdorf's gilt exhibition binding circular gilt stamped device on rear silk moiré endsheet. One of 250 unnumbered copies of the Large Paper edition. Illustrated by Charles E. Brock. Minor rubbing to spine tips and joints; bookplate, with remnant of additional bookplate and adhesive residue on first blank; top edges gilt, morocco edged slipcase, extremities rubbed. (#2469) $1,750

131. HUNT, WILLIAM HOLMAN. [Autograph Letters]. Four Autograph Letters by William Holman Hunt. 1859-1874: Tor Villa and Wilton Street, Campden Hill. Offered here is a nice group of four autograph letters signed by William Holman Hunt, founding member of the Pre-Raphaelite Brotherhood along with Dante Gabriel Rossetti and J. E. Millais. A total of 8 pages, two to his fellow painter and associate Alfred William Hunt and his wife; one to the widely known art dealer, Ernst Gambart and a fourth to an unnamed gentleman. The letters to Alfred Hunt are warm and chatty, accepting their offer of a studio (“I have been suffering...FILL IN) and thanking Hunt's wife for her letter concerning his second, controversial engagement to his deceased wife's sister). The letter to Gambart asks about “one Rothschild"...FILL IN) The fourth letter Hunt discusses an interesting commission (“... The poem of Temujin at once recommends itself to me as offering some good points for illustration and I will undertake to do a drawing for it as soon as I get a quiet few hours. I shall take a peculiar pleasure in this task as the Author [Thoby Prinse] is a much esteemed friend of mine whose assistance I can make sure of to get the best authority of appropriate costume. The prose tale I feel I can also undertake. The poem called the Betrayal I do not feel so certain about..” 8 pages, a few fox marks, very good or better. Tor Villa and Wilton Street, Campden Hill, 13 December 1859, 3 June 1864, 24 June 1873 and 20 August 1874, respectively. (#1248) $1,850

129. [HUMPHREY, MAUD] Maud Humphrey's Mother Goose. New York: Frederick A. Stokes Company, 1891. First edition. 4to. Original color pictorial paper covered boards, cloth spine. Superbly illustrated by Humphrey with 24 full color illustrations on heavy paper, printed on one side only. A superb copy, corner and side wear, top of spine, but hinges completely in tact and all of the illustrations clean and bright. (#2513) $750

130. HUMPHREYS, HENRY NOEL. The Origin and Progress of the Art of Writing. London: Day and Son, 1855. Second edition. Magnificent publisher's full black paper mache binding heavily formed in relief with red background, both covers and original spine with gilt lettering. A most scarce binding seldom found intact. Illustrated with 28 full-page plates, thirteen of which are chromolithographs. A gorgeous and certainly quirky production in the annals of publisher's bindings. A remarkable, near fine copy. (#2347) $1,750

132. IBSEN, HENRIK. Die Kronpratendenten. Leipzig: 1911, Berlin. S. Fischer for the Society of Bibliophiles. Elephant folio bound in rich dark brown crushed morocco with gilt interlocking and bold gilt borders on both covers as well as additional stylized gilt designs on inner dentelles all in the style of Henry van de Velde, superb interpretive illustrated endpapers with #210 of 250 Numbered Copies. 24 exquisite etchings by Alois Kolb and four full-page magnificent etchings with tissue guards, each one signed in pencil at bottom right by Kolb. Top edges gilt. An expansive production of a scarce work on the private press of the Royal Academy of Graphic Arts in Leipzig, Georg Belwe letterpress, Richard Berthold images and initials. Alois Kolb (1875-1942) was a Viennese artist and book illustrator known for his painterly etchings. In an impressive and period binding showing the Viennese influence on design. (#2113) $2,500

135. JOHNSON, SAMUEL. A Journey to the Western Islands of Scotland. London: Printed for W. Strahan and T. Cadell, 1775. Second edition. Contemporary calf attractively rebacked matching style with raised bands and morocco label. A very good and tight copy of what is more properly termed the second edition, although sheets from the first printing overrun were also used for this printing. With six-line errata page. (#1123) $1,250

136. JOHNSON, SAMUEL. Lives of the Most Eminent English Poets; With Critical Observations on Their Works. London: C. Bathurst, etc., 1781. First Authorized and Separate Edition. Contemporary mottled calf, expertly recased. A near fine copy of this classic work by Johnson with occasional foxing, but overall a very clean, tight and attractive set. Portrait frontispiece of Johnson in Volume One is in the state with the publisher’s imprint (Freeman does not give priority to this point of issue). A celebrated work, intimate and containing recollections and characterizations of many poets with whom Johnson personally and therefore remains a striking personal account of shared experiences. (#1121) $1,200

137. [JUGENDSTIL]. Anschauungs Bilderbuch. Oblong quarto. np, color pictorial paper covered boards, red cloth spine. Board book with eight pages superb chromolithographic full-page illustrations depicting toys, animals, boats, carriages, etc. Very good. (#2500) $185

140. [JUGENDSTIL- FREYHOLD, K.F.E. von] Morgenstern, A.D. Osterbuch [Hasenbuch]. Berlin: B. Cassirer, [1908]. First Edition. Oblong quarto. Color pictorial paper covered boards, color decorated endpapers, 16 superb full-page pochoir colored illustrations by K. F. E. von Freyhold. Celebrated for its depth of feeling and delicate coloration and composition, these series of illustrations by Freyhold are among the finest to be found in any Jugendstil books of the period. A book seldom found without repairs, this copy is completely unsophisticated with all plates clean and bright. The spine has some slight fraying on top and bottom, corners slightly chipped and hinges only starting to weaken with some separation. Covers show some wear and soiling, yet a very nice copy indeed, in its original state of a book many consider to be the finest representation of Jugendstil art. (#1244) $1,850

141. [JUVENILE- EARLY: BATTLEDORE] The Uncle’s Present. A New Battledoor. Philadelphia: Jacob Johnson , [c. 1810]. 4 leaves printed on stiff stock, the first and last leaves pasted to inside of cardboard wrappers. Woodcut illustrations. 16.5x10 cm (61/2x4”) original stiff printed wrappers. “The battledoor was an offshoot of the hornbook, and was printed on the double fold of stiff cardboard with the extra piece folded over in order to fit it for the double purpose it had to serve. In school it was used for teaching children the alphabet, whilst out of school it served as the racket in the game of shuttlecock and battledore” Rosenbach 428. Rare. Slight bend and crease at bottom; near fine. (#2529) $850

142. [JUVENILE- EARLY] Barbauld, Anna L. Lecons Pour les Enfans de Trais a Huit Ans... Troisieme Partie. Paris: P. Blanchard, 1812. Early edition, translated from he twelfth English edition. 12mo. Original fragile printed and lightly marbled paper wrappers with printed oval-shaped insert with author, title, etc. 140pp. Frontispiece and four inserted plates, all hand-colored. An amazing survival with most of the fragile spine present (1/2 inch) and all leaves still tightly stitched in the binding. The frontispiece has marginal markings. A superb juvenile production. (#2487) $650

143. [JUVENILE- EARLY: Beauty and the Beast]. Beauty and the Beast along with The Entertaining and Instructing History of Little Jack. Glasgow: J. Lumsden & Son, [c. 1820]. 2 volumes housed in decorative folding case. 12mo. Original plain brown and beige card wrappers with printed labels on covers. New editions of these wonderful tales with fine full-page woodcut illustrations in each volume. 36pp. 48pp. Beauty and beast with dampstain, else near fine; second title with worn wrappers and some loss to spine, else very good. A nice pairing. (#2480) $475

144. [JUVENILE- EARLY] Belch, William. Butterfly's Ball. London: W. Belch, [c. 1820]. Original paper wrappers with insert hand-colored illustration on cover containing title and publisher's credits. Printed on one-side only, 166pp., eight superb half-page hand-colored illustrations. Adapted from William Roscoe's Butterfly's Ball and the Grasshopper's Feast. Exceedingly scarce. Only 4 copies located in OCLC. Wrappers worn, soiled, chipped; horizontal crease throughout, a few repairs within. (#2497) $525

146. [JUVENILE- EARLY] Dorset, Catherine Ann. “A Lady”. The Lion's Masquerade; A Sequel to the Peacock at Home. London: J. Harris, 1807. First edition. Original printed blue wrappers with woodcut of lion on cover and bordered design on both covers. 16pp. Six exquisite full-page woodcut illustrations, after William Mulready, expertly hand-colored, as issued. Light wear, a very good tight copy with original sewing and narrow spine stilly wholly intact. Rarely seen thus. A classic in the history of juvenile printing. (#2481) $1,250

150. [JUVENILE- EARLY] Marks's History of Little Dame Crump and Her Little White Pig. London: J. L. Marks, [c. 1820's]. Tall 12mo. Original beige printed wrappers with pictorial cover. 8 leaves printed on one side only with first and final leaves laid down onto inside of wrappers. Each leaf with a superb comical hand-colored illustration. An early printing by Marks, with the 17 Artillery Street imprint. Spine expertly repaired, a better than good copy of a most scarce, early juvenile printing. (#2484) $550

152. [JUVENILE- EARLY] Peacock at Home. A Sequel to the Butterfly's Ball. London: J. Harris, 1807. First edition. 12mo. Original beige printed wrappers with woodcut on cover and bordered design on both covers. Six superb full-page hand-colored woodcut illustrations as issued. Wrappers worn, corners chipped, browntoning, soiled. A good copy of a most scarce juvenile classic with hand-colored plates. (#2482) $425

Item 152. Peacock at Home.

157. [KELMSCOTT PRESS] Hand-Illumined by Mrs. Irving Way, the Publisher's Wife] Rossetti, Dante Gabriel. Hand and Soul. Chicago and Hammersmith: Way and Williams and Kelmscott Press, 1895. First edition. 12mo. Superbly bound by Riviere in Grolier style in full rich brown morocco with interlocking and weaving vine, leaf and petal designs, forming an eight-sided star at the center, on both covers, original vellum cover and lettered spine bound in at back. SIGNED BY THE PUBLISHER IRVING S. WAY AND HAND-ILLUMINED BY HIS WIFE IN FULL COLOR ON DOUBLE-SPREAD TITLE PAGE AND A FEW INITIALS. AS WELL, THE BINDING ITSELF WAS DESIGNED ESPECIALLY FOR IRVING WAY (details in an early catalog description explaining a note which was affixed to the front pastedown, but which is no longer present). A fascinating association, bringing together many facets of publishing and artistry. Fine. (#2587) $2,850

161. KEPPEL, FREDERICK. The Gentle Art of Resenting Injuries. New York: Privately printed and Copyrighted by Frederick Keppel, Printed at the De Vinne Press, 1904. First and only edition. Original handmade flecked beige card wrappers with red-orange lettering and parody Whistler emblems on cover. 16pp. Printed on thin china paper in same red-orange ink with facsimiles of letters by Whistler in what is now a famous, if not scandalous exchange of animosity. Keppel, (1845-1912) was an American publisher and print dealer who was a prominent patron of Whistler and extensively bought and sold his work. In 1892 Beatrix Whistler described Keppel as an 'old friend' who had been buying a large amount of Whistler's work and selling at large profits. However, the facts showed that many of his very rare and valuable proofs were selling for almost nothing. Whistler was further informed that Keppel had gone 'behind his back' and visited Whistler's brother-in-law on business. Further tensions magnified over subsequent years, and, after Whistler's death, Keppel published this venomous pamphlet containing copies of their correspondence. The two never reconciled and to date, the whole affair stands as somewhat of a fanciful ruse, but in fact it, it had a rather serious life of its own, culminating in this rare and indeed peculiar publication. A fine copy, with the somewhat hilarious tab inserted (as issued) which says, “See Note at back of title-page,” evidently for attention deficit readers. (#2445) $850

One of 10 Copies, Bound by Adams Bindery

162. [KIRGATE PRESS] Emerson, Ralph Waldo. Tantalus. Canton: Kirgate Press, 1903. First edition thus. 41 pp. (12mo) 16.5x9 cm (61/2x31/2”) period full brown morocco, gilt rule and dot pattern on boards, spine lettered in gilt, gilt dentelles, top edge gilt. First Separate Edition. One of 10 copies on Imperial Japan Vellum, from a total edition of 100 copies. Bound by The Adams Bindery. Tipped inside the front cover is the bookplate of Emilie Grigsby, designed by Rene Lalique. Miss Grisbie's collection was sold by Anderson Galleries in 1912. BAL 5313 Just a touch of wear to spine ends; fine. (#2551) $1,750

163. [KREIDOLF, ERNST] Der Gartentraum. Neue Blemenmarchen. Koln: Schaffstein, 1911. First edition. Oblong folio. Original cloth-backed color pictorial paper covered boards, color illustrated endpapers. 16 exquisite full-page color illustrations by Ernst Kreidolf among his finest ever rendered. Many consider these illustrations to be Kreidolf's most innovative and certainly expressing his most creative interpretations in anthropomorphic design. All plates printed on one-side only. Containing verses to a variety of anthropomorphic images including flowers of different seasons, aquatic plants, alpine flowers, medicinal plants, etc. Bottom of spine frayed, corners worn, a bit soiled, but a very good, sound copy of a wonderful Jugendstil classic. (#2109) $1,250

167. [LEECH, JOHN] Young Troublesome; Or Master Jacky’s Holidays. London: Bradbury & Evans, [c. 1850]. First edition. 169. [LEFLER, HEINRICH] Musaeus, I.K.A. Rolandsknappen. Wien: Die Gesellschaft fur Vervielfältigende Kunst, 1898. First edition. Elephant folio size (19 x 14 inches). Superb color cover illustration of three men in armor in highlighted silver and red-brown. With original 1897 announcement bound-in at front reproducing cover image. Illustrated throughout with full-page, large and small drawings, decorative borders, and initials by Heinrich Lefler and Josef Urban. Book has been professionally recased preserving cover image, otherwise the book is in fine condition with all the pages clean, bright and unmarked. The earliest significant co-production of the famed Jugendstil duo, Lefler and Urban who went on to co-produce Kling Klang Gloria in 1907 and other books. Extremely rare in any condition, our copy is sure to please. (#395) $1,850

171. [LINDSAY, NORMAN] Norman Lindsay. The Magic Pudding. The Adventures of Bunyip Bluegum. Sydney: Angus & Robertson Ltd., 1918. First edition. Original illustrated beige paper covered boards with maroon cloth spine, lettering and vignette on cover in brown and bold gilt lettered spine. In Original brown thicker paper DUST WRAPPER with superb color pictorial insert on cover, lettering in dark brown on cover and spine, with small vignette on rear wrapper. Decorated green endpapers. First Edition, First Issue with patterned endpapers and gilt spine. Color pictorial insert on cover of wrapper, color illustrated title-page and superb line drawings throughout, some whole page, by Norman Lindsay. One of the most beloved and now most scarce of any early 20th Century illustrated children's book, with highly precocious and interpretive compositions featuring a koala bear, a penguin and a sailor on a wild journey involving a mysterious magic cake. A wonderful copy with gilt on spine as new, hinges in tact, and all of wrapper present and integral (with caveats noted below). Rarely seen thus. Owned by the editor of the "Argus," Australia's largest daily newspaper of the day, and inscribed the half-title: "Dr. E. Cunningham/ The Editor 'Fintona'/ Ballyo Rd/ Balwyn/ The Argus." Corners of book slightly bumped, title-page with some rubbing but no illustration. Dust wrapper with a few tears along margins of edges, one longitudinal paper tape mending along inside back seam of spine, but unobtrusive. House in a superb folding beige cloth case with red morocco label stamped in gold. A rare and seldom seen offering. (2516) $5,200

174. [MEDICAL RARITY] Malpighi, M. Opera Posthuma in quibus excellensissimi Authoris vita continetur, ac pleraque quae ab ipso prius scripta aut inventa sunt confirmantur, & ab adversariorum objectionibus vindicantur. Amstelodami: Apud Donatum Donati, 1700. Quarto. Contemporary full vellum with ink inscribed title on top of spine. Rubricated title page with wood-engraved vignette and 19 superb wood-engraved plates which are mostly folding. Usual soiling and slight wear to vellum covers, internally clean and bright with minimal thumbing and occasional wear, overall near fine copy of scarce illustrated anatomical work. Malpighi is considered the founder of histology utilizing, very early on, innovative microscopy. Many of his discoveries and descriptions are still used today in names of anatomical parts such as 'Malpighian bodies,' 'Malpighi's layers of the the epidermis, 'Malpighi's splenic corpuscles,' etc. (#1083) $2,750

175. MEREDITH, GEORGE. Autograph Letter Signed. Undated, one page (8 x 5 inches) written in light blue ink, "Thursday, Dear Admiral," arranging a meeting and saying he is very busy with work. (#2592) $225

176. MEYNELL, ALICE. Autograph Letter Signed. April 28th, Clifton. Three pages on printed "Red Cross" stationary, to James A. Manson, on original printed envelope which has superb bright red illustration by John Singer Sargent, an artist which Meynell wrote about. A letter written with a tone of anger or, at best, indignation, turning down Manson's request 'for the publication of my place of birth or year, saying, in part, "I have declined several similar applications... such information has nothing to do with the quality of my work. I object to the same with respect to the publication of my portrait- which has been done by accident..." Meynell was an important author, poet and suffragist in the late 19th and early 20th Centuries, and the tone here is certainly in consonance with her views on women's rights. (#2588) $275

177. MEYNELL, FRANCIS. Four Autograph Letters to Mrs. Everett. Various Dates in April, 1912. Written in fountain pen on coated paper with red imprint, "28 Orchard Street, London, W" arranging visits and teas... "No, I don't dare lecture in my native city, but only where I'm not known..." "I have to offer you a hundred apologies for my stupidity in spite of your instructions, as it was a fine day, I decided to bus all one way yesterday afternoon, instead of a train..." etc. On four separate stationary sheets. Meynell was a poet and printer at the Nonesuch Press, and son of famed Wilfred and Alice Meynell. (#2593) $225

180. MILNE, A. A. [POOH BOOKS-COMPLETE SET, FINE] When We Were Very Young; Winnie-the-Pooh; Now We Are Six; The House at Pooh Corner. London: Methuen & Co. , 1924-1928. First editions. Four Volumes. Fine copies of arguably the greatest series of children's stories of our time in the original fine to near fine dust wrappers. All wrappers clean and bright without any mending or alteration; fine to near fine with very slight chipping to ends of spines on a few titles. The finest set we have seen. All books are fine, two with neat ownership inscriptions. Top edges gilt. All wrapper in first state, WWWVY with contents page numbered correctly. A most attractive set, one of the nicest copies of all books seen in many years. Housed in an attractive light salmon cloth folding slipcase with paper label on spine. (#2011) $22,500
181. [Morris & Company, William Morris]. William Morris Wallpaper, A Complete Roll. “Marigold” Pattern. Offered here is a full roll of original Morris and Company wallpaper bearing the marks, “Morris & Co.” The famed ‘MARIGOLD’ pattern, first designed by William Morris in 1875 and this dating to turn of the century, c. 1900. Superbly preserved, a complete roll is rarely seen. Approximately 60 cm x 51 cm [pattern]. (#2578) (pictured below). $1,250

182. [Morris, MAY- Presentation Copy] Brinton, Anna Cos and Estelle Doheny. A Pre-Raphaelite Aeneid. Los Angeles: Ward Ritchie Press, 1934. First edition. #6 of 150 Copies. PRESENTATION COPY FROM ESTELLE DOHENY TO MAY MORRIS, daughter of William Morris, only four years prior to her (Morris’) death. Original parchment backed paper covered boards. Inscribed on front free endpaper: “Dear Miss Morris: This monograph written by Dr. Brinton expresses only part of my admiration for your father's exquisite art he displayed in my manuscript of Virgil's Aeneid. Sincerely, Estelle Doheny, March twenty first, Nineteen hundred thirty four.” Also inscribed by all three principle members of the production at end: Estelle Doheny (patron), Anna Cox Britton (text) and Ward Ritchie (publisher). Original printed presentation ticket (printed in red) inserted at end. Printed on handmade paper (Dard Hunter), superb woodcut border title page, woodcut reproduction of Burne-Jones painting and double-page reproduction of manuscript edition. A pristine copy of an unparalleled association copy. (#2048) $2,250

186. MORRIS, WILLIAM. Poems By the Way. London: Reeves and Turner, 1891. First edition. Original black polished buckram, gilt lettering on cover and spine. Lytton Strachey’s copy (prominent English author and critic) with his bookplate on front pastedown. Some rubbing wear to cloth, very good. (#2028) $450

187. [MOSER, KOLOMON, HOFFMAN, KLIMT, ETC.] Moser, Kolomon; Hoffman, Josef; Klimt, Gustav; Alphonse Mucha; Roller, Alfred (ed.), etc. Ver Sacrum (Thirteen Individual Issues, 12 Numbers, Original Wrappers, 1898-1899). Wien: Gerlach & Schenk, 1898, 1899. First edition. Offered here is a collection of 13 issues (in 12 numbers) of Ver Sacrum, in the original color printed card wrappers. The seminal magazine of the Vienna Secession published from 1898 to 1903, featuring exquisite color illustrated poster-like covers, artwork by the major artists of the Vienna Secession such as Kolomon Moser, Gustav Klimt, Josef Hoffman, Alphonse Mucha, etc., as well as occasional features from writers and poets (Rainer Rilke and Richard Dehmel, etc.) The magazine was published monthly with a small print run (under 500 copies) through 1899. From the third year onward, the magazine was published twice a year, instead of monthly installments. Ver Sacrum upheld the Secessionist notion of “Gesamtkunstwerk,” translated, ‘a total work of art,’ whereby a compressive presentation of all fields of art was promulgated. A wonderfully preserved set, including every number of the first year except November, the ‘extra-issue’ for 1898, and the December, 1899 issue. All are in remarkably preserved state, some fine, others near fine, and mostly very good, with original or contemporary glassine wrappers on many; a few expert mends, 1899 issue without rear wrapper. Highlights featuring artists: Jan, Kolomon Moser, Alfred Roller; Feb, featuring Moser with Hoffman and Klimt decorations; Mar, Klimt cover; Apr, Hoffmann, Rilke; May-Jun, Klimt cover; Jul, Adolf Bohn, Hoffman; Aug, Hans Schweiger; Sept, Hoffman, Moser; Oct, Felician Rops; Dec, Fernand Khnopff; Dec 1899, Kolomon Moser. A most scarce set, in the original issues. (#2563) $5,200

189. [NOUVEAU, ART] H. Vial., Editeur. Lettres et Enseignes; Premiere Serie: Art Nouveau Par E. Mulier, Professeur de Composition Decorative Diplome. Dourdan: Librairie H. Vial, successeur de Ch. Juliot, n.d. (ca. 1900). First edition. Large folio (43 x 33 cm) cloth-backed folder with superb Nouveau-illustrated titling and design motif in red-brown, original ribbon ties (3) present. 28 Art Nouveau plates (numbered 1-28) in many colors, superb illustrative illustrations and motifs delineating period Nouveau design, by E. Mulier. Present is the extremely rare eight-page description of the plates (also folio size), with embellishments and the last page containing ‘Extrait du Catalogue.” This laid in prospectus is entirely uncut and near fine. Binding and contents all in wonderful condition, with minimal wear, near fine. A most desirable and important Art Nouveau compendium, rarely seen thus. (#81) $2,250
190. O'SHAUGHNESSY, ARTHUR. An Epic of Women and Other Poems. London: John Camden Hotten, 1870. First edition. Original plum cloth, beveled boards, with central gilt figure of man lying down at beach, gilt lettering on spine. ASSOCIATION COPY FROM O'SHAUGHNESSY TO PRE-RAPHAELITE ARTIST ALMA TADEMA: (written in purple ink on first blank before title page: “Monsier L. Alma Tadema, with the author's best regards, 16th January, 1871.”) Full-page illustrated title page (prior to lettered title page and five textual illustrations by J. T. Nettleship in an abstract almost Blakean style. O'Shaughnessy's first book, inscribed to Lawrence Alma-Tadema, classical Dutch painter who moved to London in 1870 to rapidly become one of the most famous and highly paid painters of his time, befriending and working with most of the Pre-Raphaelite artists. A wonderful and certainly important association, occurring at the brink of both poet's and artist's burgeoning careers. Near fine. (#12462) $1,250

191. [OAKLEY, VIOLET] Law Triumphant Containing the Opening of the Book of the Law [Proof Copy] Exceedingly Scarce, full blue leather, Ltd. Signed. Philadelphia: Privately Printed by Violet Oakley, 1932. Advance Proof Copy. Bound (i.e. not folding boards as in trade edition) in full aquamarine blue crushed leather with blindstamped designs and bold gilt lettering and vignettes on cover. Glossy gold endsheets. The scarce Advance Proof Issue, Signed by Violet Oakley and printed in pencil, “proof copy,” just below her signature. A further presentation inscription by Oakley appears below this in calligraphy, “presented/ to/ Austin Brown/ by/ the Author.” Contains all of the printed text and the 71 full color and tinted collotype plates as the trade edition, but all bound-in (as issued), versus free in folders. Also, as issued, the proof copy does not contain the colophon giving credits for printing, binding, etc. Edges untrimmed. Bound by Alfred Smith Company, Philadelphia. Cover shows some minor edgewear, else a thoroughly pristine copy internally. Proof copies for this book are exceedingly scarce. (#1236) $2,500

194. [OAKLEY, VIOLET] Two Original Photographs of Violet Oakley's Studio With Autograph Inscriptions on Back by Violet Oakley. Philadelphia: not published, ca. 1900. Offered here are two original photographs, most likely taken by either herself, Jessie Willcox Smith, Elizabeth Shippen Green or Edith Emerson. One, of her close friend and fellow painter Ellen Wetherald Ahrens, and the other of both Violet Oakley and her sister, Hester Oakley. Both have original explanations of the photos written by Violet Oakley on the back in pencil: On verso of Ahrens, “This is Ellen at work in at her corner- When we are not taking photos, she has the window open beside her. The little Oriental seat in front of her made by ourselves and of old pin cushions and a packing box and two little rugs. Isn't it pretty? The back is all padded.” On verso of Violet and Hester: “I at work and Hester sitting talking to me-” Photos are slightly age-faded, a few corners and sides with small chips, else very good. Exceedingly scarce private photographs of Violet Oakley's studio with artist friend and sister. (#1197) $2,500

196. [PASCHETTO, PAUL] The Twenty-third Psalm. Rome: Privately Printed, 1927. First edition thus. Unpaginated. Nine original woodcut illustrations by Paulo Paschetto, all tipped in. (Folio) 39x33.5 cm. Original full pictorial vellum with image of the Christ carrying a lamb upon his shoulders. No. 5 of 100 copies. Signed by the author at the limitation statement; each plates with the artist's penciled monogram and date. Paolo Paschetto (1885-1963) served as professor at the Royal Academy (Rome) and was known for his superb illustrative talent. Light wear; very good. (#2542) $2,250

197. PEETERS, JAN. [FLORIS JESPERS] Kinderlust. Antwerp: Reclam, [1923]. First edition. Oblong 4to. Original color pictorial wrappers with two separate superb full size color designs on both front and back wrappers. 48pp numbered every third page interleaved with 12 exquisite full-page color linoleum block prints by Floris Jespers. An exceedingly rare volume, illustrated by the Belgian Avant-garde painter Floris Jespers who was a major force in Flemish art during the 1920's. Kinderlust combines abstract and representational elements, with affinities to Cubism, German Expressionism, De Stijl, Constructivism and Art Deco. A superb copy, virtually spotless and unused internally. Fragile wrappers have some edge cracking, especially at very end toward outer edges. Spine with very small loss to paper. An amazing survival, and one of only two known copies on the market today. (#2493) (also pictured below). $5,200

198. PATMORE, COVENTRY. Autograph Letter Signed. One page on folded sheet, to Mr. Rawlins, asking him to call to interpret a legal document. “Can you look in tonight to tell me what it all means...” etc. (#2589) $225
199. [PELLAR, HANS] Ostini, Fritz von. De Kleine Koning. Amsterdam: Holkema & Warendorf Publishers, 1910. First edition thus. Large squarish folio size. In original publishers full beige pebbled cloth with illustration of comical king set off against a black background, bold gilt-blocking on cover, blindstamping, beveled boards, silk endsheets. Twelve exquisite mounted color plates highlighted using bold gilt as gold in the illustrations with striking bright colors, by HANS PELLAR. Each page with borders and text opposite illustrations. Printed (and mounted) on extremely thick watercolor paper. Superlatives lacking in describing the quality of this projection, no doubt trying to one-up the German first issue produced in Munich. One plate with crease, otherwise a strikingly clean and fresh copy of a scarce book to find in any presentable condition, owing to its size and weight. Pellar's illustrations here are among the most colorful and imaginative of any in the Jugendstil catalog. (#2283) $2,750

208. ROSSETTI, CHRISTINA. Autograph Letter Signed to Alice Boyd. One page. “56 Easton Square, N.W., Monday 21st December. My dear Miss Boyd, May we hope that you will give us the pleasure of your company to meet a few of our friends at 8 o'clock on the 7th January? Pray favour us if you possibly can, accept my Mother's most cordial remembrances, and believe me, Affectionately yours, Christina g. Rossetti.” Dates before 1886 (death of Christina’s mother). Scarce association between the famed poet and the William Bell Scott's lover who became associated with Christina partly by default (through her interactions with Scott, a close companion to Dante, her brother) and more so after visits to Penkill Castle in Scotland. Very good. (#2242) $1,250

209. ROSSETTI, CHRISTINA. Autograph Letter Signed to Dalziel. 2 pages. “30 Torrington Square-W.C., January 28, 1890.” A superb two page letter to the Dalziel Brothers publishers on folded 12mo black-trimmed mourning stationary. Fascinating letter dealing with “Sing-Song” which Christina initially published in 1872 with the Dalziels as engravers and was later to collaborate in the 1893 edition (three years hence) again with the Dalziels as engravers. “…I thank you for forwarding Mr. Grave’s letter. Please send me a card to make me sure that you have no interest in the course I pursue-- I ask, because of course we have a joint interest in the “Sing Song” volume-- and then I dare say I shall say nothing about what yet I agree with you might be not unreasonable. I suppose “Sing Song” is as sluggish and unproductive as ever?” Wonderful humble, if not mildly sarcastic tone he...” Scarce. (#1914) $2,750

211. ROSSETTI, CHRISTINA. Verses. London: SPCK, 1894. First edition. Original dark blue polished buckram, beveled boards, gilt lettering on cover and spine. ASSOCIATION COPY: Inscribed, and with a poem appended, by Christina Rossetti to her biographer, the noted English writer, poet and literary critic, Mackenzie Bell. Written in fountain pen on title page: [at top] “Mackenzie Bell Esq. 1894,” and then at bottom, “Faith is like a lily lifted/ high and white-./ Christina G. Rossetti.” As well, stamped on front free fly in cursive stamp, “Mackenzie Bell.” A wonderful association copy, given by Christina Rossetti to her longtime friend and associate, the definitive biographer, inscribed in the same year as the book. Near fine. (#2521) $4,250

212. ROSSETTI, DANTE GABRIEL. [Original Holograph Proofed Poem Attached]: Ballads and Sonnets in Maclehose Binding. London: Ellis and White, 1881. First edition. Superb full crushed morocco with heavily gilt cover and spine design matching nearly precisely the gilt cloth binding on the original edition, bound by Maclehose of Glasgow (1811-1885) a prominent and accomplished binder of the period. INSERTED ON THE FRONT FREE ENDPAPER IS A COMPLETE POEM IN DANTE GABRIEL ROSSETTI'S HAND, THE ORIGINAL MANUSCRIPT POEM, “PARTED PRESENCE,” ONE OF THE POEMS IN THE BOOK, WITH EDITS FROM THE PUBLISHED VERSION (FOR WHICH A NEW INTRODUCTORY STANZA WAS WRITTEN) AND OBVIOUSLY REPRESENTS THE ORIGINAL MANUSCRIPT FOR THE POEM, BEFORE THE PROOF STAGE INCIPIENT TO PRINTING. With the bookplate of Thomas Glen Arthur (i.e. his book), noted collector of rare books and manuscripts. Original manuscript poems by Dante Rossetti are vanishingly scarce. Binding and book in fine condition. (#1915) (pictured below). $9,500

213. ROSSETTI, DANTE GABRIEL. Autograph Letter Signed and Signed Receipt Dante Gabriel Rossetti for the famed “Blue Bower.” On Rossetti's engraved monogram-headed stationary, 16, Cheyne Walk, Chelsea. Letter dated 28 May, 1865. 2pp. To his colleague J.F. Pilgeram [sic for F. J.] writing out a receipt signed by Rossetti for 100 pounds on account of 210 pounds paid so far by Pilgeram for the famed “Blue Bower”. by Gambard (art dealer and oft patron for Rossetti works of art) for The Blue Bower. Rossetti painted “The Blue Bower” for Gambart (known as the “Prince of Dealers”), a captivating portrayal of Fanny Corforth, and celebrated as one of Rossetti's greatest works of art. Of the painting, William Michael Rossetti comments, “A half-figure of a woman playing a musical instrument... one of my brother's most vigorous and brilliant pieces of painting, with much sumptuous accessory.” The painting was recently the centerpiece of the exhibition held at the Barber Institute for Fine Arts at the University of Birmingham. The painting has a long line of illustrious provenance and now resides at the Barber Institute. A most noteworthy and historical important piece of documented history. 2 pages, folded with original mailing stamp over which Rossetti's signature is executed. Signed three times by Rossetti, the closing, the document and notation with date on verso. Folded sheet, very good. (#1249) $2,250
214. ROSSETTI, DANTE GABRIEL, ETC. The Germ: Thoughts towards Nature In Poetry, Literature and Art. London: Aylott & Jones, 1850. First edition. Magnificent Cobden-Sanderson Doves Binding (with gilt pallen on rear pastedown, “19 C-S 04”) with exquisite bold gilt tulip and stipple designs at all four corners on both covers and extensive similar design motifs on five panels on the spine, carried over also on both dentelles. The Pre-Raphaelite Brotherhood’s seminal and first literary publication, Numbers 1-4, all published, edited by William Michael Rossetti, with contributions by Dante and Christina Rossetti, F. Madox Brown, Thomas Woolner and others. 4 parts, full-page frontispiece etchings for each number by Holman Hunt, James Collinson, F. Madox Brown (double-page) and W. H. Deverell. Original printed wrappers with pasted over printed title “Art and Poetry, Being Thoughts Toward Nature, Conducted principally by Artists” to January and February and the “April, 1850” label pasted to the last number. Binding very slight wear to corners and margins of spine; occasional browntoning, a near fine example of one of the true rarities in the Pre-Raphaelite pantheon, made much more desirable and rare in this luscious Doves Binding. One of perhaps only a couple of the Germ in a Doves Binding. Housed in attractive half brown morocco folding case with gilt lettering on spine. (#2595) $25,000

215. ROSSETTI, DANTE GABRIEL. Autograph Letter Signed. 4pp. on folded sheet dated March 31, 1859 (with blindstamped seal) and signed twice by D. G. Rossetti. Blackfriars Bright, Thursday. Personal letter to Sir John Simeon discussing his painting 'the Paolo' which might make a successful photograph as well as a discussion on whether Ruskin has finished a preface "or introductory essay" which will "add incalculably to its value in every way." And ending with, "I heard Tennyson read the 'Maid of Astolat' the other day- a glorious piece of work is it not? More I think than Morte d'Arthur I fancy." Perhaps responding to a query regarding making a reproduction of Rossetti's Paolo and Francesca painting, but providing a good deal of meandering and opining. Signed at end "D.G. Rossetti" and also at top of first page in darker pen, "D. G. Rossetti./ March 31./59.” One minor smudge, else very good. (#2236) $2,500

217. ROSSETTI, DANTE GABRIEL. The Blessed Damozel [Deluxe, 35 Copies, Stunning Vellum Covers]. New York: Dodd, Mead and Company, 1886. First edition. Immense Folio Size. The Deluxe Edition, Limited to Only 30 Copies with Proof Impressions on India Paper. Original publisher's full vellum with striking Pre-Raphaelite gilt cover design by Kenyon Cox, decorative spine gilt blocked, silk-backed endpapers. Superb illustrations in proof throughout by Kenyon Cox printed on thick card paper. Kenyon Cox's “Blessed Damozel” was a landmark in printing and publisher's bookbinding in the U.S. for the period, and served to advance both Cox's career as an artist, as well as further popularize The Pre-Raphaelites to a growing U.S. market. This book is seldom seen in the Deluxe Edition, and our copy, without any foxing either to pages or the thick vellum cover, makes this particular example all the more attractive. (#1856) $2,500

218. ROSSETTI, DANTE GABRIEL. Poems. Large Paper Issue, Fine in Original Boards. London: Ellis & White, 1881. First edition. 4to. The Large Paper Issue, “A New Edition,” original light blue boards, whitish paper spine with label printed in three lines, all edges uncut. As per Colbeck, “This Large Paper issue was issued without certificate, but was limited to 31 copies. A Fine copy with all the paper present on the spine, corners straight and unbruised, internally pristine. Without a doubt and far and away the finest copy we have ever seen in its original state, vanishingly rare thus and a cornerstone of any Rossetti or Pre-Raphaelite Collection.. (#1971) $5,200

220. [ROYCROFT PRESS] Hubbard, Elbert. An American Bible. East Aurora: The Roycroft Shop, 1912. First edition thus. Original light brown full impressed binding by Frederick Kranz, master binder for Roycrofters. A stunning, fine copy, almost never seen thus, with virtually no signs of wear for a binding that seems to have a record of succumbing to excessive wear. An attractive design by Kranz, who was the foremost hand crafter for designing this technique of modeled leather book binding. His bindings sold upward to $200 per volume and continue to be highly sought-after ever since. TEG, others untrimmed. Double-page title spread printed in orange and black, orange initials throughout, full-page impressed plates with tissue guards throughout printed on Japanese Vellum comprising portraits of famous authors and personalities. Fine. (#2504) $1,500

221. [ROYCROFT PRESS, 25 COPIES] Hubbard, Elbert. Poor Richard’s Almanack (Only 25 Copies Printed). East Aurora: Roycrofters, 1924. First edition. Bound by Roycroft in three-quarter light brown crushed morocco with attractive Art Deco-style gilt and embossed spine. One of only 25 copies on Japan Vellum (this copy not numbered) and with scarce Roycroft issued wraparound description stating binding description (3/4 Levant), Number of books in set (one), Color (tan), Price ($15), Bound by (L. Schwartz) and Remarks (Printed on Vellum). With Roycroft seal. Top corners sl. worn, unobtrusive water discoloration rear cover. (#2135) $1,500

223. [ROYCROFT PRESS] Lee, Vernon This is the Essay on Art and Life. East Aurora: Roycroft Printing Shop, 1896. First edition. 91, [1] pp. (8vo) original three-quarter olive morocco and boards, spine gilt, raised bands, top edge gilt. No. 315 of 350 copies printed on Japan vellum. The third book from the Roycrofters. This copy not illuminated Initialed by Bertha Hubbard at the limitation. McKenna 1; Ogle, p. 88. Spine faded, some scuffing; very good. (#2561) $475

225. [SCOTT, WILLIAM BELL AND DAVID SCOTT AND ALICE BOYD] [Pre-Raphaelite Watercolors] “Drawings of the Painted Windows in the Royal Military Academy”. Super folio size, 21 x 15 inches. Circa 1845-1860. Original bound volume (full contemporary brown calf with elaborate gilt tooling) comprising 13 original mounted pen and watercolor drawings of the stained glass windows in the Hall of the Royal Military Academy, a few MS captions, the first ornamental gothic calligraphic subheading in many colors. A remarkable survival, a mutual collaboration between three artists, William Bell Scott and Alice Boyd (his mistress and artist in her own right), and David Scott, William Bell's brother and noted artist. Provenance: owned by the famous collector Frederick R. Koch who brought it to Sotheby's in a huge and important sale in 2001. From thence it was purchased by an ABAA dealer and then later sold to a collector/dealer from hence we obtained. These finely executed watercolors exhibit the detail and accomplish associated with William Bell Scott. We don't know the level of collaboration, but it may be David Scott envisioned the project, William Bell executed the paintings and Alice Boyd embellished and performed calligraphy. The association of the three was handed down through the original collector, Mr. Koch. Images are detailed, full of color and luminous, presenting a wide range of mythical and historical scenes, including St. George and the Dragon, Caesar's invasion of Britain, Charles Martel at Tours, King Alfred at Aethelingay, Rouen, Hastings, the defeat of the Armada, and Marlborough at Blenheim. Extremities rubbed, spine ends with tears, some buckling of mounts at outer margins. All watercolors are fine. A completely unsophisticated, enchanting and technically superior grouping of watercolors, historically significant, especially with respect to William Bell Scott, Pre-Raphaelite poet, painter, critic and Dante Gabriel Rossetti's closest companion and colleague in the Pre-Raphaelite movement. (#1965) $22,000

226. [SCOTT, WILLIAM BELL, CROWQUILL, TENNIEL, ETC.] Hall, S. C., editor. The Book of British Ballads. London: Jeremiah How, 1842, 1844. First edition. Two Volumes. Quartos. In original publisher’s binding Full fine-pebbled red calf with attractive geometric and floral strapwork design in gilt on covers, blindstamped border cross-hatch pattern. Spine with raised bands and elaborate gilt floral strapwork and lettering, marbled endpapers. Dozens of full and half-page woodcut engravings by artists who later to blossom in the 1860's in book illustration, such as Paton, Tenniel, Pickersgill, Gilbert, W.B. Scott, Crowquill and others. Also of note, early engravers showcased here such as G. Dalziel, Edmund Evans, Vizetelly, and W.S. Linton. “The most ambitious English book with wood engravings during the period under survey” (Gordon Ray). Calf binding shows slight wear along margins of spine and corners, but overall near fine, very fresh and bright. Contents clean and bright with occasional soiling and brown-toning predominantly in volume 1. (#1067) $1,200

227. SCOTT, WILLIAM BELL. The Year of the World; a philosophical poem on “Redemption from the Fall.” [Presentation Copy]. Edinburgh: William Tait, 1846. First edition. Contemporary boards with light brown leather spine, paper label with hand-written lettering on spine. PRESENTATION COPY: “Albany Hancock Esquire with the author's compliments,” written by Scott on the half-title. This is the scarce first issue with five superb illustrations by William Bell Scott (Colbeck only mentions four in his copy). These illustrations were produced in a limited supply and were inserted into the earliest copies on binding, but later copies appeared in the same printing without illustrations. Rossetti deeply admired these poems, which represent Scott's second book. Boards somewhat chipped, with slight loss in one corner, old auction label on cover. A most scarce and desirable early Scott item. (#1232) $2,250
228. SEIDMANN-FREUD, TOM. [MARTHA GERTRUD] Das Zauberboot [Moveable]. Berlin: Herbert Stuffer, 1929. First edition. Original color pictorial paper covered boards. Famed for its innovative illustration and composition, “The Magic Boat” has become a classic and sought after early 20th Century Illustrated Children’s Book. Fully illustrated in color throughout with four pull-tabs on two separate double-moveable color illustrated devices (each comprising two-page assemblies), a moveable hub revealing rabbits and hedgehogs, and the scarce and seldom found original perforated stencil (Nicths als Fruchte) at rear in half-page pouch. Benjamin describes this book as “the most beautiful of all new children’s books” (Works III, 211). Cover with tread mark stains, hub intact, all moving parts working, a very scarce and important Jugendstil moveable. (#1253) $1,750

229. [SIDDAL, ELIZABETH] Four Magnificent Collotype Illustrations, Annotated by William Michael Rossetti Circa 1900. Offered here are four collotypes made by Elizabeth Siddal, wife of Dante Gabriel Rossetti from her own drawings, executed circa 1900 and each on contemporary mount with manuscript labels on the verso by William Michael Rossetti giving details of each drawing and further stating that the set was presented by him to the “Bookstall of the Women's Social Political Union in May, 1909.” The drawings: 1) St. Cecilia and an Angle.” 11.5 x 8.5 cm. William Michael Rossetti (WMR) states, “This drawing was probably made before a design similar in essentials, by Rossetti, engraved in the illustrated edition of Tennyson.” 2) From “the Ballad of Clerk Saunders.” 12.5 x 8.5 cm; 3) “The Woeful Victory.” 14 x 11 cm. WMR states on verso, “The subject is from Rossetti’s poem, 'The Bride's Prelude;' but the part of the poem which was actually written does not comprise this incident. Drawing done c. 1855.” 4) “The Madonna & Child with an Angel.” From a drawing c. 1856. 13 x 9 cm. Elizabeth Siddal (1829-1862) was Dante Gabriel’s chief ‘muse,’ model and lover. He was engaged to her for ten years before they married in 1860. Tragically, she died of an overdose of laudanum only two years later. Siddal was an accomplished painter in her own right. William Fredeman, chief critic and writer of the Pre-Raphaelites, has said, “It is tempting to say that Elizabeth Siddal was, after all, the only Pre-Raphaelite. In a grim way, she stood for all it meant; and she combined in her fragile beauty and in her tragic life the legendary aspect that inspires the movement's art and poetry.” Collotypes by Siddal are extremely rare; and these examples, with holograph descriptions by William Michael Rossetti, The Pre-Raphaelite Brotherhood's chief spokesman and brother of Dante, make this grouping especially alluring. The collotypes are evenly browned; some chipping to cardboard mounts. (#1872) $3,600
230. [SMITH, JESSIE WILLCOX- MAGNUM OPUS] Humphrey, Mabel. SMITH, JESSIE WILCOX. The Book of the Child. New York: Frederick A. Stokes Company, 1902. First edition. Large squarish folio. Original color tinted paper covered boards, beige cloth spine. Cover insert on front and back by Smith, seven full page color plates, three by Jessie Willcox Smith and four by Elizabeth Shippen Green. Six headpiece drawings in orange and black by Smith, six by Green. First and only edition (except for an English edition of lesser quality printed after this release) of what is universally considered Smith's greatest book, both in size and color and composition, produced in collaboration with Elizabeth Shippen Green at the starting point of both artist's graphic art prowess. The book is noteworthy on many accounts. It was the largest colorplate book for children issued in the United States (with a few minor exceptions), it was printed by the acclaimed and accomplished color process leader, Charles W. Beck, Jr., who would subsequently join with Smith on a number of other books. Finally, the book stands out as a highpoint in compositional genius, artfully combining the complementary skills of two leading illustrators of the period in large format book for children. (#1262) $2,750

231. [SMITH, JESSIE WILLCOX] MacDonald, George. At the Back of the North Wind. Philadelphia: David McKay Company, 1919. First edition. First issue book and wrapper, satisfying all of the points in Nudelman A53. In original white printed glossy dust wrapper with central color illustration offset in light brown background, lettering in black on cover and spine, no other writing on the wrapper (as called for). Beige cloth with bold gilt panel border on front cover surrounding color insert, blue embossed borders. Spine with vignette and lettering all blocked in gilt. Top edges gilt. Eight full-page color plates, color title-page, color insert on cover, blue pictorial illustrated endpapers all by Jessie Willcox Smith. Book is pristine, very fine with no signs of wear. The gilt on the cover and spine are as new. The wrapper is very good or better, completely in tact with only a few random small chips, esp. to corners and base of spine. A very scarce wrapper for an early Smith book. (#1163) $675

232. [SMITH, JESSIE WILLCOX and many others Illustrators] American Art by American Artists. One Hundred Masterpieces representing the best work in pen-and-ink and in color of Twenty-seven Celebrated American Artists. New York: P.F. Collier & Son, 1914. First edition. Oblong, immense folio (30 x 35 cm). Original dark blue cloth over boards with cover label, bound with two 'metal posts' at spine (as issued) in order to hold in the 100 leaves printed on thick, glossy paper. This exceedingly scarce compendium of American artists and illustrators includes the work of Howard Pyle, Maxfield Parrish, Jessie Willcox Smith, A.B. Frost, Edward Penfield, C.D. Gibson, Howard Chandler Christy, F.X. Leyendecker, Harrison Fisher and others. Title page has photo of every artist along with a brief biographical sketch. Except for a small tear to title, book and binding in excellent condition. Given the enormity and importance of this work, a very special survival and very few copies remain. Not found in Nudelman's Bibliography of Jessie Willcox Smith. Nudelman A38 (#80) $2,250

234. [SMITH, JESSIE WILLCOX RARITY] Bryn Mawr College Calendar for 1902. Bryn Mawr: Bryn Mawr College Students' Association, 1901. First edition. Oblong quarto. Exceedingly scarce original printed Bryn Mawr College Calendar comprising THIRTEEN FULL-PAGE THREE-COLOR ILLUSTRATIONS BY JESSIE WILLCOX SMITH, ELIZABETH SHIPPE GREEN AND ELLEN WETHERALD AHRENS. Measuring 14 x 7.5 inches, this calendar was printed by the Beck Engraving Company who go on later to print many of Smith's books, including all by David McKay. Original printed wrappers with cover illustration by Elizabeth Shippen Green, calendars calligraphied by the three artists with decorative initials, six full-page colored illustrations by Jessie Willcox Smith, six full-page colored illustrations by Elizabeth Shippen Green and one full-page colored illustration by Ellen Wetherald Ahrens. These illustrations were commissioned especially for this illustrious calendar by the Bryn Mawr College Students' Association and are the first and only appearances of these images anywhere in print. The concept was pre-date by one earlier number which had only 5 full-page color illustrations by Smith (others in border designs). Without a doubt the scarcest and most graphically stunning of any of Smith's ephemeral items, of which there are hundreds if not thousands of examples through her prolific career. Some very minor chipping to paper, original ties still present, an amazing survival. (#1196) $2,250

235. SMITH, JESSIE WILLCOX. Autograph Letter Signed. Four pages. “Coglea,” Mar. 26th. n.d. (ca. 1915). Interesting letter to a Mrs. Ingersoll, possibly Frances E. Ingersoll, a fellow illustrator who had some illustrations in a St. Nicholas issue in 1913. Smith writes, “My Dear Miss Ingersoll, I received the enclosed yesterday from “The Century.” Am so sorry-- Don't you want more to try Scribners- Would it not seem worth while to you to have them publish the story- then write out any illustrations as possibly only one- The truth of the matter is that my pictures cost a good deal and they are a little choosy about using them- Suppose you tell Ann Chapin to let you know direct & then return the M.S. to ???? if they do not keep it- as it is unnecessary to have it sent dir [sic] to me- Wishing you all success the next time. I am Cordially Yours, Jessie Willcox Smith.” A wonderful four page letter on one octavo folded sheet. Letters by Jessie Willcox Smith are extremely rare, and this one shows her interest and kindness in responding to a solicitation for illustrations, and at the same time gives good indication how sought after and restrictive her publisher's were with respect to engaging work. Near fine. (#1268) $2,500

240. STAMMBUCH. [“Book of Friends” or “Album Book”]. Stammbuch: Meerane and Saxon area near Leipzig, by Emilie Delling. A superb Stammbuch elegantly presented in elaborate folding dark green half leather case with contemporary if not original spine and parts, giving owner (Delling) and titled, “Reminiscenz.” Contemporary marbled slipcase. Approximately 80pp. individual leaves with entries, about 15 illustrations with six superb watercolors and watercolor vignettes, 3 embroidered pictures, 4 applied curly hair examples, pencil drawing, etc. (10 x 16.5 cm). Entries 1831-1838. Numerous sayings and artistic expressions of friends from the town of Meerane in the northwest of the district of Zwickau in Saxony, including autographs, very pretty young ladies with a watercolor drawing of a round table under a large willow, one figure playing a mandolin while a young man hides behind a bush watching. A well preserved and cunning example of contemporary memory and art. (#1252) $1,750

241. STAMMBUCH. [“Book of friends” or “Album Book”]. Very early Stammbuch, Salzwedel, April 18, 1807. Salzwedel, 1809. An extremely early Stammbuch with beautiful and accomplished original artwork with entries between 1807 and 1817, with most 1809-1813. Original oblong calf with gilt tooling on covers and spine, with the date 1807 and initials C.E.S. Original patterned endpapers. 131 numbered pages with 100 entries and 20 illustrations including 12 superb watercolors and gouaches, a pinprick image, an intricate lock of braided blond hair, two embroidered designs: one whole-page on silk attached and the other woven into the page with designs appearing on both leaves, copious fine calligraphy, poems, salutations and the like. Extremely well preserved, this Stammbuch predates by nearly two decades any in the famed MKI (Max Kade Institute for German-American Studies) which contains many fine examples of Stammbucher. Particularly richly illustrated with nice provenance from Salzwedel as well as Mount Pearl, Selchow, Wittenberg and many of Berlin. Among the remarkably beautiful watercolors and gouache paintings, there is a view of a mill on the river by the Brandenburg painter Carl Rothig, a 'Temple of Love' by Johann Theune, a friendship oath at the altar of Amicitia, several bouquets of flowers in bright colors, etc. A power-packed album with most of its original leaves present, a few finger stains and wear, overall very good condition. (#1251) $3,750

scathing treatise against Pre-Raphaelitism, “Fleshly School of Poetry.” Fairfax Murray's copy, noted English painter, dealer, collector and benefactor, who was intimately connected with the 'second wave' of Pre-Raphaelitism (with his bookplate). Covers very slightly scuffed, else a very good copy of an important and enduring Pre-Raphaelite work. (#2405) $850

243. TENNYSON, ALFRED. A Welcome. London: Edward Moxon & Co., 1863. First edition. Two examples: First issue and second issue. 4pp. Original printed wrappers. Two sets of this four page booklet originally thought by Wise to consist of only 25 copies printed, but lately a large number have surfaced. These two found together in an old mailer from Burrows Brothers Co. Rare Book Department with the original description denoting its rarity. Fine. (#1280) $450

246. TENNYSON, ALFRED. Poems Chiefly Lyrical. London: Effingham Wilson, 1830. First edition. Superbly bound c. 1900 by Bradstreet's of New York (signed with an ink pallet on front endleaf) in full brown morocco with elaborate bold gilt blocked floral and quatrefoil centerpiece design on both covers, elaborate gilt-tooled spine. The name “Dr. Henry M. Garsson” appears in gilt at the bottom right front cover, gilt dentelles. First issue point of p.91 misnumbered as “19.” Also with the scarce errata leaf and even scarcer two-page advertisement at end. “Carcanet” is spelled correctly (second state point). This is Tennyson's first regularly published book. Bradstreet's was a very well-respected binder and received an 'honorable mention' in de Bois's “Historical Essay on Art of Bookbinding” (1883/ Henry Garsson founded a munitions contracting business in 1941, and, interesting, after the war, was found guilty of defrauding the U. S. government and was imprisoned. Fine. (#2574) $2,750

250. WILLIAMS, MARGERY. The Velveteen Rabbit. New York: George H Doran Company, [c. 1925]. First American edition. Original color pictorial paper covered boards with illustrations on covers, endpapers and 10 full-page color plates (7 credited, as three of these are double-page) by William Nicholson. Printed on laid paper. Scarce First American Edition. Larger child's signature on front fly and again much smaller in pencil on half-title (neatly crossed out). A superb copy with almost no wear to the fragile paper covered boards, and fine contents, with one half-inch rubbed out patch on rear cover, else fine. Scarcely thus. (#2525) $1,250

251. WISE, THOMAS J. The Ashley Library [With ALS from Wise to Owner]. London: Printed for Private Circulation, 1922-36. 11 volumes. Quartos. Original publisher's smooth beige buckram cloth, gilt lettering on spine. [Sir] Robert Arundell Hudson's copy [noted British political activist, 1864-1927] with his bookplates, and autograph letter signed from Thomas J. Wise to Hudson dated 2.4.26 laid in. A superb copy, near fine, with only minimal sunning to spines. Engraved plates and facsimiles throughout. Rarely seen in this condition, the eleven volume set of the Ashley Library is based on the unrivaled rare book collection amassed by Wise, one of the greatest scholarly 'book thieves,' ingenious typographical forger, and collector of fine and rare books of our time. Still a useful reference work, the Ashley Library (the collection now resides in the British Museum) especially excels in its descriptions of English nineteenth century literature. (#2249) $3,250

253. WOOLNER, THOMAS. Autograph Letter Signed. Two pages on folded octavo sheet (light gray), to Sir John [Simeon], baronet. “Wallington, Newcastle on Tyne, Jan 3 '68. My dear Sir John, William Rossetti has heard from some one that you have some Blakes and that you know some other person in the I. of Wight who has a collection...” He closes with, “Pray pardon this attack upon you; but W. Rossetti is such a very great friend of mine I did not like to decline doing him a turn if I could. You see I am holiday making—staying with Sir Walter Trevelyan—Please give my kind respects to Lady and Miss Simeon, Most truly yours, Thos: Woolner.” Very nicely written, with fold marks. (#2243) $475
